Your Base Unit. Life Plan

Greetings. Lani helping you to balance yourself, relax the body and the mind, that is, let go of everything you have been doing or thinking about, and focus within your own essential consciousness.

Step into that stream of consciousness that was made known to you in the previous session and move into the assembly in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

Take in a breath and allow yourself to be in the expanded dimension of you and your consciousness field into this space – so that we can begin.

"Greetings and Welcome to you. Orem addressing you in this space and drawing you deeper into the inner connection that you have. The deeper you go within your consciousness field within the stream of consciousness, the expanded dimension then becomes known to you. It becomes available and you easily recognize it and acknowledge it and allow it to be within your own essential consciousness.

The base unit of you, if you think about your present circumstances as being the base unit, then you are the energy which activates that base unit and is present within it and around it and moves through it. In a sense we are speaking about the base unit as your physical aspect in the different energy structures of that base unit – the physicality. It is important for you to acknowledge this at this stage because many of the functions are responding differently to the higher energy patterns coming through the solar portal. We are speaking about the codes from Source energy,

You see, you were never intended to be living on the Earth and disconnected from the ongoing flow of energy and information and you found your way back to reconnect to the continuous flow for you. Many of you will be experiencing shifting patterns within your base unit, the base unit being your physicality and that includes emotional and thought patterns and all the activities within the physicality. This is why in the previous session the emphasis was on you absorbing the energy which comes in through the living energy matrix field surrounding all. Some of you may see this in your own perceptions as what you term your auric field.

This is an extension of that and a different interpretation of what that is, because the energy matrix connects into a greater flowing energy field coming through different connecting points and the connecting points, while they connect directly into your personal individual sphere and energy systems, they also connect into the greater galactic spheres and energy systems and pathways. So, on a greater field of understanding, you are connected to all of creation, all of existence.

Where does this bring to you in your realizations? What does it reveal to you? Does it reveal to you that you are bringing in all of the higher order and potential and support from universal consciousness – from the multi-dimensional fields of consciousness – into you, around you, into the Earth? There is always a great number of Beings like you who have stepped in consciously to the fields of consciousness and the quantum light that comes in, so you are able to bring in clear patterns of understanding, of energy in whatever way is your particular purpose, to facilitate and manifest in the world.

You are vessels for this. Your base unit is perfect for this. This also means that you are actively in connection and communication with the quantum field which contains Beings from different galactic spheres of activity and consciousness and again, that comes through different vehicles, or different Beings.

Feel the expansion of this. It is important in many ways for you to understand your placement. You could think about it as being you suddenly appeared within your body formwork, your base vehicle/base station, and you are bringing in a greater amount of vitality, of vital essence and energy, for what is needed around where you are located so that each of you all around Earth planet and the satellite moon, you are bringing in that greater field of clearness. This is a pattern that had occurred in another reality, so in this reality it does appear that you have suddenly come into experience what is being acted out around you by other individuals.

You do not need to allow yourself to be engaging in many of the different thought form fields that are manifesting. You need to remember that you have come in with a higher field of energy and connection. This is how you are manifesting the different world pattern of civilization. This again is a reminder to you to be aware of those greater areas within the civilizations simply referred to as "Light".

Details are not presented to you in these sessions because as an individual when you connect in, you will be aware of activities and details. As you are in your physical base unit, you simply need to be aware there is that higher level of existence and pattern and it is that higher pattern that connects you into the quantum field matrix of existence and communication.

Earth is moving. Every part of creation is moving and so you will be aware of this and thus it is always needed for you to reconnect to Source Energy and of course your own original point of origin and that helps you to maintain balance within you and around you, as the energetic shifts occur.

This is all that is required for you to experience in this session. You are already absorbing the intention and the expanded field of activity around you, so be aware that you are absorbing a manifested state of existence and this is in compliance with the energy matrix of you as an individual Being receiving it all and incorporating it into your life plan and that life plan of course, is moving and expanding.

It is all part of the quantum field of creation.

Those of us with you at this time are also checking you, scanning you, observing you in your multi-dimensional aspect here, so you could be aware of adjustments happening. Small, minor activations and clearances and of course, the clear connection into all the aspects of you, so that you clearly receive the pattern coming in through the solar portal to you.

Integrate this into you and when you re-enter this space you will be receiving more of this communication in this way.

Orem out "

Lani again speaking. Thank you, Orem.

There is much activity occurring. Are you aware of that? Are you aware of many Beings in a gathering, sharing thoughts and ideas and illustrations in a telepathic way? It is perhaps visual sensing and if you are receiving this, as I am, then it is activating those aspects of you so that you receive more clearly on these extra levels of perceptions. While I say they are extra levels, they are natural to you in your higher levels of consciousness manifesting in you and through this physical vehicle that you exist as.

As you are aware of all that, and it is happening very quickly all around you, bring it all into you, absorb it with your intention, the unspoken thought, and allow it to be received throughout you in your ordinary physical life – which actually is much more than that now, isn't it?

Receive it in the layers of your energy field, incorporating it deeply within every cell, every energy aspect of you, where you are receiving this. Now take in a conscious breath, breathing it all into you and releasing all of the old patterns that may have been restricting you in any way whatsoever that you are not even aware of sometimes, so that you continue to move forward clearly into the expanded life that is you, bringing light energy into your life plan.

Now it is time to end this session with all that light energy information around you and bring your focus back within and around your base unit and as you take in another conscious breath, bring yourself back into current Earth space time, as we measure it. Earth has shifted in this space where you stepped out of time measurement into an expanded field of consciousness and so you are adjusting yourself back into Earth space time with all of that expansion.

It is exciting sharing this change with all of you.

Thank you.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
