"Welcome. Orem addressing you and I represent all of the Beings in this Station, all the Councils who exist here, all the aspects of the Beings who are helping the expansion of consciousness in the vector of Earth location and also in multi-dimensional locations and areas of expansion.

Understand from this that while you are the sole receiver of this information, the information and energy is being received in multi-dimensional existences. It is never just one civilization perhaps that you know that you exist in. It is more than that. It is beyond that. The main focus is on maintaining your integrity and your connection and receiving energy from your original creative source energy space.

We use various of your words and in variable meanings to assist you to let go of the thought pattern that might limit the words and step into the framework of the energy system. You know that you are an energy system and as an energy system it is a bio-organic field that you exist as and the more closely you came to exist in the pattern of the Earth station consciousness, then you accumulated various particles that assembled into what you know as your physical body, the physical framework and all the systems within that. You will know that many of those systems are purely energy systemic processes. Focusing on the element of energy, you will understand that you easily respond to the energy flows coming into the consciousness field where Earth station is to participate in the activation and greater enlightenment of systems.

In this respect we are referring to individual Beings as energy systems.

Now you understand that the same energy patterns are coming through the solar portal into the same living existences that you identify as your living space – the locality. You however are also focused within an expanded energetic dimensional field. Your energy field of your individuality, more than the individuality and energy field of the humanoid species. You will understand that you have been aligning with the pure element of Creation and as you continue to do that, you are, in effect, becoming lighter. All the processes of your energy field are expanding, releasing denseness and moving into a higher field vibration.

In the same way, many of the other organic life systems around the planet have their own organized processes of receiving light field energy and information. There are times when there seems to be an overlap of some of those earth systems connecting into your individual life energy system. As you become aware of this, you will be going through a process of automatically relocating some of those other systems that might have been impinging on your life force, relocating them back to their natural existence and presence.

Coming back now to you as you completely align with the clear pattern for you, be aware that you are bringing in information patterns that you are familiar with that you have worked with. Often you may be aware of impulses within you – perhaps thought patterns - that you know how to do certain craft work or other creative aspects and yet you do not quite understand how you know that. It is remembrance of other ways of working. Some of the other ways of working are not compatible with the energy systems of you now, so you will be connecting with what is compatible with you every time you reconnect with your original point of creation. There are many purposes for your reconnection and this will be assisting you in your processes of your daily activities.

Accelerating the Shift ...Conscious Intelligent Network.

Hello, Lani speaking again with you on another expansion of energy and information. Perhaps you read this one time only or perhaps several times during the week. Whatever is relevant for you will come forward to you at any time. We just need to be aware when we are in the receiving mode, when we connect into the prime place of existence.

For today, begin by taking in a natural breath and as you let your breath out, feel you are filled with light and that you are your body of light, now assemble in the receiving area of the Station of Light. I always enjoy connecting with you, wherever you are located and together now we are located in this central receiving dimensional space. Thank you.

Reminding you of this also will help you to bring into you the various elements of creation to assist you. This is part of presenting yourself as fulfilling and carrying on your original purpose to be within the present energy body, your light body and this existence.

From our viewpoint we are assisting in the ongoing shift of the energy systems relative to the planetary Earth consciousness, as well as your own energy overlaying matrix, of assisting you in the shifting process. This is going through a phase of acceleration, an increasing intensity of the vibration of the shifting process. Be aware that you always have the energy that assists you. You may be told, you may have received information, that you are going through a pressure system, that you may feel stresses. That again is an implanted concept, an idea which comes from other individuals as they perceive the changes happening. Choose the system which would help you in the easy, free momentum that you are already participating in of enabling more light systems to be present and visible and active within your support system. There are also reports, of course, of many galactic vessels from interspace visible, captured on film, some are truly present and some are not. Again, it is your discernment. They are observing and in observation there is the reporting system and the understanding of what level of the shift of consciousness is occurring in the general population present.

Shifting your focus always into the higher field cosmic consciousness state assists you, assists everyone in your connective field. Together you are a conscious intelligent network and that conscious intelligent network is active around us and through us as we communicate with you.

During this presentation you will have been identifying certain aspects within you responding to the light field. Deep within the levels of your processes relating both to your consciousness energy field of the light body and also that structure that enables you to be functioning and present in the placement where you are around this planetary system.

This also is communicating with those ones existing in other planetoids beyond what you know as the Earth planetoid. Indeed, in gatherings such as this, the communication goes out to the matrix of intelligent consciousness. You are part of this great network - you are a valuable participant in it.

Process all of this and proceed following the streams of energy that you are receiving through the various stages and channels emanating from the pure state of existence. Thus the information necessary for you at this time is presented to you for you to be aware of and integrate within you.

Orem out “

“Into this space with you to continue the adaptation process for you, I am known as Ulea and it is my joy to be with you in this way, reminding you of all that you are. Reminding there is the clear support system available to you through the systems known as light and the light in the bio-field within you changes the dynamic and active sequences within you in accordance with the higher pattern of creation, going beyond what is delivered to you through your scientific modelling. We continue to assist you to refresh yourself within the fields of light of conscious intelligence, through that cosmic flow. You are reminded again of the bio-plasmic field. It is a deeper connection that exists everywhere. For those of you who work in the structures of the technical field, you might relate it to an intranet using the plasmic field.

This is existing everywhere and it is an aspect, a necessary process within you, carrying the fields of light, the flow of the processes.

This is presented to you in this way again to assist you.

Ulea out”

“Lani speaking again. Thank you, Ulea and Orem, and all the Beings involved in this.

Now it is time to bring all of this back into you, letting it flow in around you from above your head, all through you – this cosmic intelligent flow of light, energy and information, continuing the expansion of consciousness for you.

In your own time, take in a natural breath and as you let it out, bring all the energy within you and bring your awareness back to your light body and body form and the time as we currently measure it as Earth time within this Earth space dimension.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Thank you.

Lani
