You are the conscious energetic matrix.
Removing / dissolving distractions

Hello. Lani speaking again to you.

Are you ready to settle yourself to receive the latest energy information for you? Again, it is all about your willingness to connect with your very high existing aspect of you – your Soul – through the solar portal, and this entails you relaxing the body, breathing in deeply and moving into the state of consciousness where you present yourself into the gathering with me and with many others.

And so we begin our expansion of consciousness today in the receiving aspect of the Station of Light.

"We welcome you as a collective gathering into this connected network of consciousness.

You are the conscious network. You are the consciousness that is the energetic matrix field surrounding the planet, surrounding you as an individual connector to the greater level of realization of existence.

You are aware of the expansion of the consciousness field, the energetic matrix of the cosmic energy and information.

You are more deeply connected as we assist you to realise the effect you have that has extended beyond any of your parameters of thought that may have been a limiting factor for you.

From this point on, in receiving this you are moving as you would say, forward, easily and strongly. It is moving into the fields of consciousness where the infinite cosmic energy such as you would think of as a greater plan exists. It is simply an overall support system which you are very familiar with because it is part of your soul essence and this is what you have connect with fully and you are manifesting this in your thought patterns today, in this moment, in this presence, in this presentation and you are manifesting it around you completely throughout your energy field.

Momentarily, feel the extension of your energy field as you are here with us in this assembly and as you are in your physicality unit. It is the same expanded field of consciousness.

What differs is when you fully reinstate your energy field into the physicality, you feel the shift of the extension of your energy field as it relates more strongly to the environmental conditions around you.

Gathered here in this space, your energy field merges in the deep connection with the consciousness that we present to you. There are many matters that you might be considering which are also brought into this consciousness field and these matters that you may be aware of will be dissolved in this cosmic field of consciousness. They do not exist in this cosmic field of consciousness.

You are realizing this is what your true energy field, your greater consciousness is and therefore this is what you are manifesting in the physicality.

The connection goes beyond all known areas of your planetary system where the planetary unit named Earth exists and its surrounding influences. All of that is part of your consciousness field and your consciousness field, the cosmic consciousness field, envelops all. It envelops all, more than your particular solar system that you are presently stationed within.

We present this to you in this way for you to understand there have been consecutive expansion experiences. As you review experiences you remember from whatever aspect of your existence as a conscious being, there is the gathering in of the necessary elements and these necessary elements are part of the vital essence of your soul presence existing in the reality that has been created where you are. That reality that has been created where you are, has been waiting for the correction and adjustments and the various expansions of consciousness to connect to this energy frequency pattern, the vibration of it, which you already are experiencing and this in turn has a rippling effect out from you and you will realize there are many aspects that will not survive that rippling effect as they are.

They are able to be converted into a higher form of existence, likened to a pattern of light, which simply then continues in a different aspect of creation.

In effect, this removes from your reality disturbing patterns that you will have been aware of on many levels of your consciousness and the disturbances have been the distraction from your pure soul presence – the essence of it.

Keep the awareness of the pure aspect of your soul presence in you and around you in all your activities and connections multi-dimensionally, or internationally – in your words in your global experience of Earth globe – and therefore as you realize all of you receiving this are an aspect of the unified cosmic consciousness field, then you see that clearance rippling out effect happening.

So, Earth becomes a clearer, stronger Being of Light receiving the cosmic rays through the solar sun portal and responding to it because there has been the realizing and connection of you all into the cosmic matrix of consciousness.

Integrate this into you. Feel it unfolding more of you – your true soul presence. Perhaps it is unfolding to clear away things that have been distracting you – thoughts, fields of energy which you are exposed to because simply you are existing on this planetoid which is one sphere of existence.

There are multi layers to what we bring to you in this session and all sessions. Therefore, the rippling out of this cosmic light field has no limits in relationship to various civilizations, various generations of population and of other Beings – other Creatures – present in whatever civilization or timeline you might remember. You might remember also, aspects of you bringing in higher field light information sequences into other areas of life that have existed in different dimensions within the Earth globe biosphere.

Bringing your awareness back to what we are presenting around you in this gathering is another form of strengthening your pure connection to the original formation, the in-formation of vital essence for you and as each of you realize this, you will realize the greater connectivity there is.

Feel this connection between you all receiving this and between you all and all the other connections you have. Expansion of light field. Expansion into cosmic consciousness of existence.

Bring this all into you now as this ends this aspect of this session and we withdraw now.

I am that one known as Orem, surrounded with the Star Beings you are familiar with in this portal of expansion.

We acknowledge you and support you.

Orem out “

“Lani speaking again and I bring my awareness back into my personal presence here, also drawing in that energy and information which I was able to express and they were able to use my language and presence to communicate with you each.

Take in a natural breath, breathing in deeply and breathe yourself back into the physicality you have, right from above your head, through your body to beneath your feet, into your entire beautiful energy field. Feel how that has expanded all around you in this wonderful sense of connection into the expanded field of consciousness – into the reality you have known which has already changed by the experience you are having within this session.

Breathe it all into you, anchoring in the pureness of your soul and all the attributes, the potential, of this light field station known as Earth.

Thank you. This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Remember, you can always share your experiences with me, privately by email or text.
