Omega Communications Portal

Refreshment. Access the Field. Zero Point

Lani with you, presenting the energy and information through the Omega Communications Portal.

Begin in our usual way of being comfortable, relaxed and somewhere you are not being disturbed.

Take in a natural breath and as you let it out, place yourself with me and others in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

When you sense that, take in another natural breath and as you let it out, feel that you are fully present as the wonderful, natural Being of Light that You are.

"We come forward and bring you into this energy field again. Each time you move into this energy field with us, or by your conscious intention, you are receiving the energy refreshment, with information, in many cases, that you will be drawing to you.

I am speaking as Orem and in this space I present to you the information and energy assisting you. All throughout your lifetime you have had access to energy and information that is appropriate for you. There have been many times when you have been aware of other dimensional assistance and energy and information, although at other times you were not aware of it because you were consciously engaged in thought patterns or activities in some way. This is refreshment when you come into this state and presence of an expanded field of consciousness.

This enables you to alter the vibrational frequency pattern of your energy field here and of course that is always linked with your physical body form – that physicality which indeed is an energetical aspect of the physical form. So, it is a combination of course as you know. Therefore, allow yourself to accept the energy field impulses here.

You may consider this to be modifications. We present it to you as an amplification of your natural energy process and how you receive the flows of energy to sustain you and maintain you and to bring new opportunities and to inspire you with the creative activities which are natural to your soul pattern.

Previously we presented you into the energetic field known as the original point of existence out of which arises creation. This is what is referred to as the void, or zero point in other modalities. Again, speaking to you about this, you are accessing that field of potential and possibilities. Always that aligns with your purpose for being here in this session and your purpose for presenting yourself into physical formation to be actively consciously present in the current circumstantial civilization around you.

Remember, you have access to draw upon the energy field which will assist you. You may think of this as having the essential tools, or the qualities, that are around you in the supporting field. We speak about this as individual support for that which you know as you as an individual, but every time you bring in energy, which in many cases you may use to upgrade your body form or to clear a pattern of thoughts or emotions, this also affects the entire consciousness field, the overlaying matrix which most people are aware of. Beyond that, of course, you have accessed the higher point of original cosmic energy field and you are refueling yourself with that, then that flows out into the field of consciousness where it is most needed. It needs to be accessed, with your intention, from the highest point of creation for it to come into the vibrational field containing the population on Earth as it exists now.

Your awareness is important. What you are doing in accessing this energy field that is natural as part of your true soul that you have aligned with and recognized, that also is a natural process. If you feel you sit at home and do nothing, that is not correct. The principle of all this is that you are very active in bringing in the true field of enlightened consciousness, in you, through you and around you.

It is offered out – it is rippling out from you. You are not responsible for how other people will respond to that. Your responsibility is to be in true alignment with the Soul intention that is you.

Moving beyond this now, we bring you into the gathering where there are multiple dimensional Beings surrounding you and you are part of this multi galactic dimensional field of conscious Beings. There is a sense always of celebration, of union, in this gathering of Galactic Beings and inter-dimensional Beings, in many ways.

You might remember other words that are brought to your attention from other people, in many ways. This is your access point to receive the energy in the ways that you naturally receive it and are aware simply of the gathering. Perhaps you receive individual words or images of support and the connections where you are accessing other forms of creation- the elements sometimes that you feel you are needing to bring into your awareness and perspective you have of what is occurring around the Earth-being.

There are many different channels, different pathways, different ways that you have traveled through. You are the sum collection of experiences for you, but remember, there is always the presence and in the present moment, of everything that is required. There is the intention and the flow of energy that comes to you from other dimensional existences, other aspects of you existing, so remember to access the higher field of cosmic conscious intelligence, bringing everything into you, stabilizing you, uplifting you, regenerating aspects of you.

When you feel you have accessed this, which could be in this moment within these words, that is the fulfilment of this session where you were drawn in to receive and where you drew in this information for you to access.

You may feel the energetic shift. In this space there are many vibrational aspects of you responding to what you are receiving.

Thus, this aspect of this session is fulfilled and you will be aware you are back in the receiving aspect of the Station, so you are able to draw in all this frequency within this vibration you have accessed.

Orem out “

“I come around into this space with you – known as Ulea, simply to enjoy the connection and communication with you.

Everything that you may perceive that I am as a dimensional Being is what you are. You are fulfilling that within you.

You will be aware of multiple connections in the layers around you in the energy grid labelled the Cosmic Matrix. There have been other intrusions around the population generally which have been utilizing that known framework, so remember to align yourself with and be aware of the Cosmic Matrix of high field consciousness.

Even these words as I present them to you, I am observing the alignment around you as your thought processes understand what is being said and the subsequent enlightening of you with the confirmation.

This is my presentation to you and now I assist you to return and restore all this higher field natural to you, into and around you and through your actual physicality unit within the civilization. Be aware of the changes. Indeed, there are multi levels in the changes, so you choose what you align with – and it is always your choice – even such that you chose to come into the body form to experience this change. You are acknowledged, always.

Ulea out “

“Lani again. I give my grateful thanks to Ulea, Orem and the other Beings we connected with in this session, many of them will still be around each one of us.

Take all of this into you. make sure you breathe yourself back into your body, right from above your head, down to the soles of your feet within the Earth energy situation.

Again, you are enhanced and you have taken in the vital energy essence that you may be needing. There has been another shift. Do you sense that slight alignment of you? it has happened.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Enjoy this time of year in whatever way you may celebrate it and we do celebrate times of year as we recognize it for our own reasons and purposes. Enjoy it all.

Thank you.

Lani
