Field of Potential. All dimensions now

Hello, Lani with you again for the last recorded session for 2022. I wonder what changes you have experienced and through which you have stepped into expanded states of consciousness – of change. Reflection is interesting when you look back on the journey that you have had and the energy you have taken through your life's journey with each breath you take.

Let's begin again today for this session, taking in a natural breath and as you let it out, allow yourself to be transported into the receiving state and area of the Station of Light. Gather here with your full attention and intention of being in this energy field, experiencing it all and the value of it. Thank you.

"Moving into position with you at this time, I am Orem addressing you and bringing you into this stronger field of connectivity and the connection of course goes beyond your immediate personal sense of who you are and why you are here and what you are. This moves into the connections in the multi dimensional fields of existence of reality. While all of this exists around you and in this sense it is all now, there is the impulse always to create and to allow the higher field consciousness of your cosmic origins to be fully moving in you, through you and around you.

This purpose is clearly defined to you, although you may hear it in specific words and phrases and different levels and this is relative to the area, or the field of consciousness, that you connect in with. The field of consciousness around you as you receive this is vibrating in your energy field here. You are receptive. The receptor elements of your energy field respond to the different frequency patterns. This is why as you listen to these sessions you may detect pauses or unusual words or phrases. These are triggering aspects for your level of receptivity within your awareness field – your consciousness. This is your field of potential that you are accessing.

You must always honour yourself, rather than judging yourself or belittling yourself in terms of what you receive where perhaps you could compare that with someone alongside you hearing and receiving in a different state of receptivity in them. What is important is that you realize you access your potential to the fullest degree that you allow that to manifest in you and through you because it could create changes in you, in your physical environment, in the patterns you experience as you live in the energy field upon the Earth civilization that you have always been aware of and now you become aware of the different layers of – you call it densities - and yet they are dimensions which are all around you now.

You see, you have easily stepped in through different time portals and with particular assistance of the Star Beings into what you would see as a futuristic dimensional existence. That is all around you. You know it. You have known it and you do experience existence in all the fields of energy and information which come through into manifestation as different types, or realities, of civilizations, of existences.

This is intended to help you explore the elements of your coexistence within these various dimensions. Pause to experience shifts in your energy receptors and how that changes a vibration that you experience here within your energy field.

You are becoming conscious of strong resolutions within you, that is, powerful intentions which activate different aspects in your field of activity within that field of potential – your potential – continuously available to you and streaming energy and information to you from your point of origin coming through the main portal existing in alignment and through your sol – your sun – into your central core energy receptor. There is indeed the particular main central receiving processor within your energy field. Identify this. Feel it being filled with the infinite cosmic intelligent field of existence and potentiality.

This is your central activator and when you are within the core energy essence of you, then you can bring your attention into that field to resolve any discomforts or any matters that are apparent in your current existing reality. When those are resolved that means they are dissolved and you are open to the expanded field connecting into the overall cosmic matrix – cosmic consciousness.

These are specific words we use for you at this time to assist you to move beyond what you feel is the human intelligence. You know the human intelligence has been defined and you know that definitions belong to a sense of mind power, of controlling certain mechanisms within you which are limitations and our intention is always to move you outside of those limitations where you observe from the higher cosmic field, the matrix surrounding all creation. It is from that overlaying cosmic matrix that you can be transported into different fields of existence or where you simply connect with the Galactic Councils – the Galactic Beings – with whom you identify.

Again, give yourself the space to connect into the alignment pathways – the actual beams of communication, streams, that are appropriate for you.

Here, you might realise you are gathered with different fields of Beings simply for the same purpose of accelerating expansion of consciousness. You will realize there have been pockets of consciousness around Earth living space which have been functioning at different vibrational frequencies and those are all within fields of consciousness which have not connected to the overlaying cosmic consciousness field. It is all working, it is all apparent and is all part of the natural process that individual beings allow themselves to be within. Your choice. Individual choice and intention.

Everything we have presented to you through these informational pathways – the sessions as you name them – is all about reconnecting you to your prime source of cosmic infinite presence.

This, as you process it in your central master processor, is what sends out the ripples of energy and information that you receive. Although at times you may not fully comprehend what that is, the ripples of high intelligence from the cosmic field continue to ripple out through you. You may allow those of course to assist you in many ways to align yourself in the correct principles of creation.

We have observed the minor adjustments, the reconnections you make and we remind you it is necessary to reconnect on a daily basis simply because of the levels of consciousness you go into during your times of sleep – those deep levels of consciousness where you access many fields of information. Upon waking, your intention should be to reconnect with your highest point again, because there are other rippling scenarios that as you move into different states of consciousness you may connect with which are not relevant to your pathway and your Soul presence.

In this session you have fully reconnected with your Soul as it is presenting itself into your current state of consciousness so that it fully completes the cycle of bringing in the cosmic field to ripple out around you, manifesting the field of dimensional existence. Many of you have been wondering when this will occur in the reality. We are telling you it is already around you. Wake up and experience that. Wake up within that dimensional field that is appropriate for you. You are important. The way you absorb the energy is important.

This is our sequence of energy patterns for you in this session in this deliverance. It is with you.

I withdraw now

Orem out “

“Lani here with you all again. Thank you Orem and all of that connection with all the field of all the Beings, all part of us. We are with it all.

Now, begin the transition of you back into your physicality, the physical form in the locality. “Locality” – I think we have to reframe that word, I think, into the multidimensional locality, so it is not localized around you but you are in a field of action and existence. Perhaps it is the “totality”.

Enjoy this pattern where you have received something particular for you that you have been wanting to know about or to receive. It is your journey. It is your presence as you being your complete Soul in this presence of you. We connect on many levels. We connect in through the Earth time space and we connect through the matrix of cosmic communication. You feel this. You know this. So, I feel I have to welcome you again into the connections that we have and the creations that we are manifesting. Thank you.

Thank you for being present in these journeys through the years as we number them – 2022 – and we will connect again as the numbers click over into some other reality in that present moment.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Take in a conscious breath and breathe all this energy and information deeply into you, into the sub atomic level, into that multi-dimensional field of creation, the energy network that you are, into Earth space time as we measure it, into you so that the correct energy ripples out around you.

Lani
