Cosmic intelligent data fields

This session of the Omega Communications is coming especially to you, at this time for whatever is happening around you, whatever new phase you are experiencing, whatever changes you are experiencing. So, let's gather together in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

Remember, you do this by taking in a natural breath and as you let it out, place yourself within the dimensional framework – the energy framework – of the receiving state of you in the receiving space of the Station of Light.

Immediately you realise you have stepped into the receptivity state of yourself and that receptivity state of yourself is what we identify as our body of light. Be aware of yourself as an energetic form and then you can be receiving the in-formation of you. Are you ready to begin to receive? You are already here so, as Lani I step back to allow the energy and information again to come through from the Beings here.

“Acknowledged and indeed as we come forward and draw you further into the energetic sphere of the existence here, I am that known as Orem and those with me you are able to identify in accordance with your perception. You might identify this aspect addressing you as some particular form, and so you are being informed directly into your cosmic intelligent self. This is the self that we address here in this space – the cosmic intelligent self – but that is combined here with your consciousness which relates to the processing of the data received around your physical location. The physicality.

You are aware that you are constantly processing data fields around your existence of the civilization that you identify with. As you identify, resonate, with the greater dimensional field existing also around you, then the data that you receive is of a different vibration and the vibration brings into you the frequency patterns that you adapt to from the higher cosmic intelligence. This in turn is reacting to the different encoded packets or sequences of energy and information. That is, your physicality and thought processes are responding, or reacting, to the higher field cosmic level of existence. So here you are already receiving and acting upon the energy frequencies coming to you.

Perhaps you could identify this as signals that you receive from an outer aspect of your consciousness. The aspect of your consciousness that exists – we speak about this as your Soul presence and yet that Soul presence is always present in the creative cosmic field.

You would be familiar with the phrase as above so below; as out there, so within you in the cosmic fields of intelligent information. Also this has an effect within your thought processes where you are constantly analyzing data that is fed to you through various channels existing around the world. We understand that many of you do not tune into the channels of data constantly fed to people. However, because you are still in that energy field of the localized civilization, you are aware of what is being fed to people, what is being impelled to people in various ways. This is why we are consistently assisting you to raise your awareness to receive from the cosmic level, the purest state.

We are bringing you back to reconnect that cosmic state of you. For many of you, this was the central point where you coexisted with a vast number of Beings who were moving out into many places you might say newly formed living spaces, or carrier vessels, or planetoids that are ready to receive a jump up in evolutionary states to evolve, so that more of the pure cosmic creation of intelligence is scattered throughout creation in multidimensional ways, multidimensional fields, multidimensional galaxies and individual places of creation.

We are bringing your awareness back to the central focus point from where you sent out signals which you continuously send out to all of the aspects of you – coexisting – in different dimensional realities. You are sending signals to yourself – the Self you recognize in the body form and existing and having the body form. Again, this is you coming forward to unite in the very Soul presence of you and therefore you are bringing in beams of light field informing yourself as an individual and this is the ripple effect that goes out from you and those Beings around you who resonate with that will pick it up and also increase their vibration.

This moves back and forth in the different fields of existence. You are all establishing higher light field informational fields from the Cosmic Creation. This of course, as we have explained, dissolves away patterns that do not resonate in this higher field.

It is all about resonance and how you identify with what you are resonating with. Remember, various aspects of your emotional field and therefore your physical field, will be responding to the higher fields – the codes – that you are receiving from all the cosmic intelligent information codes of you.

This is a necessary element to bring to your awareness. Receive the confirmation of this because it is a resonating field which you generate and which you resonate with. This is the main importance of you receiving these informational sessions. Resulting from this, you are in a greater communication field with other Galactic Beings who are also resonating with the same intentional fields emitted through various channels, various portals and the main portals throughout galaxies are the solar portals. All of this is known to you. All of this is what you are drawing through to you to reconfirm yourself and what you are doing by being present in the current body formation and lifeform.

You will see around you where many people become stuck because they are not allowing themselves to receive the higher field information patterns and so being stuck in different fields of reality confines them. Part of your presence and the importance of bringing through all this energy field deeply into the reality around you is to assist those ones who come into your awareness. Everything that comes into your awareness when you are connected into the higher cosmic field of your intention and purpose, receives informational patterns which ripple out naturally through you. It is not something you intentionally do. It is simply a natural field, part of the natural process.

Many fields of creation arise from this cosmic informational pattern coming forward directly to you, coming through the solar portal. That is strengthening the information patterns you receive directly. It does not matter if you are not exposed to the fulness of the energy coming through the sun from the central sun through the sun. It is important, but you receive those energy beams in multiple ways and when you are directly connected to your pure source of creation, you naturally receive the informational patterns coming through the solar portal. We speak about it in terms of a different, or you might say a singularity aspect, but there are always connections that you naturally absorb.

This is the presentation to you, at this time. This is what you were seeking to understand and to receive in your receptivity processes. This is happening now. Absorb all this that is being presented to you with these few words and in this space you are not confined to time. It is beyond time. You would be having the experience of existing in multidimensional areas in the vastness of creation. Harness all this. Absorb all that you need in this presentation.

I withdraw now

Orem out “

“I am with you in this moment out of time. Ulea I am known as and therefore you are familiar with me. We, as the collective consciousness, enjoy the process of helping you to realise the process you are involved in and which you manifest in and through you through all the elements of your consciousness and your consciousness is your entire energy field. You are a sphere of consciousness yourself. You are a dimensional field of consciousness, as a single Being, as your Soul focused within your own particular sphere of individuality – your presence. Everything that you receive from the cosmic intelligence field strengthens your presence. Your natural core energy presence of the Soul is, as it were, the sun, the sol, your individual Soul actively present within the pattern of the consciousness of that planetoid named Earth or Gaia or whatever name you identify with as that energy form providing all of the sustenance that is necessary for you for the physical. It is your energy field that absorbs the true identification and energy codes of the cosmic way of life. It is as if you have been refueled with the cosmic energy.

This is what I come forward to present to you, and to remind you and to help you absorb. We are with you.

Ulea out”

“Lani again back with you and as I bring my focus purely back as my beingness, bring your attention back to your individual Soul Self and bring all this back into your body. It is as if you do breathe it back into your body in the cycle of life, the cycle of breath. Each breath you take in, you bring in renewed energy but you also bring it back through your body – in and out through your body. Refueling yourself with the cosmic fuel that Ulea described it as in the simplistic terms that we more readily accept. All these words perhaps have a greater meaning to you. This is all left with us to absorb and process and should be and is, strengthening all aspects through this current formation of your life and Beingness.

Thanks for receiving this and this ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal. On your next natural breath in and out make sure you bring your attention into the present moment that we measure. That means you are grounding the energy into your Earth body and the consciousness of Earth. Thank you. Until next time, enjoy this wonderful energy.

Lani
