Master Code. Quantum Intelligent Field What Sustains You?

Lani bringing you another inner journey and the opportunity to gather within the Station of Light with all of us as one unit, connected from wherever you are physically located, connected into this group gathering.

You know how to relax your body, relax your mind letting all thoughts drift away and breathing naturally and easily, come with me into the receiving area of the Station of Light. As I have said before, this exists within our field of awareness. Even though we may not see it with our physical eyesight, we see it with our inner perception and so it is and here you are and thus we begin this session today.

“Orem greeting you in this way as you assemble here again. You will be aware that with me, with you, all around this space, there are many Beings observing you, acknowledging you because you have set aside this space for you to gather into and it is a continuation always. There is a continuation of life, of energy always and so you choose, you select the state of energy, or the appropriate frequency to which you resonate and in that resonating field and especially what is offered to you in this space, clear of any lower thought form and patterns that have been introduced into civilizations. In this space you are clear of those, all of those lower level energy spaces.

In this space you are receiving the higher frequency pattern and this firstly recharges you. In your terms you might say you are a solar being like a solar battery being recharged with the light frequency and thus you will be able to perceive the upgrade work which occurs within your entire energy systems, being aware of course that you are an energy system.

Continuing on from this, you are within an energy system that the planetoid named Earth receives. There is a continuation of the energy field always streaming to you through the energy fields and streams coming through the Sun, but also around that within what you might think is empty space, there is this energy field and this is what we bring your attention to today.

You are aware that the energy field is able to be accessed or utilized as you continue to align yourself to the origination purpose and cause, the Master code. So if we think about it in terms of a Master code, then you would think that the original point of existence, the creative vitality life force, is the Master code. It is the central area that you synchronize every aspect of yourself with when you open to receive the streams of energy of information from Source creation.

There are ways that can be utilized to make this energy more accessible to you. Your choice of course and you can choose to connect initially to the pure frequency patterns and that will naturally enhance or flow into you through everything which you expose yourself to. Once you are correctly attuned to the Master code, to the original source creation, then this is the way what you have a need for in your energy field, your personal energy station, will be drawn to you. The energy systems that you are, right through all of the energy fields and the particles of light come in because they are directly received and understood by the essence of you which we refer to as your Soul.

Think about all of this happening with everyone you have connections with. These may be friends, family, places you have worked at, market places, everywhere, and you would also understand from this that this consciousness matrix field of connections makes the Earth itself seem very small because there is accessibility to the overlaying cosmic matrix, the grid of conscious intelligence from the original intelligent source.

All of this information is presented to you through these words and presented to you by the presence of the Galactic, or Dimensional Beings supporting you, with you. You are enveloping yourself, your life, in this same higher resonating field frequency. Perhaps you have already been observing different rays of light being streamed, being visible and around you as you sense and understand frequency patterns which can be observed as sound or light spectrum colours.

All vibrational frequencies. The more that you are aware of this and you draw into you these higher frequencies, then you are naturally working with other dimensional fields containing other dimensional lifeforms. There is a focus of observation and intention all around you, around planetoid Earth at this time.

Think about what sustains you and what sustains lifeforms on the planet and you become more aware of where your attention is drawn and where the vital essence is present. Present for you. Present for all the lifeforms of your life pattern. Therefore, what you have come into in this quantumness of this quantum intelligent field indicates that you are aware of the positioning changing and the stability and the alignment of planetoid Earth changing. It is simply being exposed to the higher resonating field. It is being uplifted, you see, and you are being uplifted as part of that. You are participating in the increasing vibrational frequency and frequency is utilized in creation. It is the creative presence and lifeforce, the codes. Think about this active within you.

There is a great intensity of information projected and offered to you in many ways – take this, do that, think this, provide this in you and remember, everything that will help you must be of the higher vibrational frequency from the source code, the Master code for life. As you register this within you, there is the uptake, or the intake of it – depending on how you use and interpret the words. It is infusing you with the vital components, the particles, that are necessary to be active within you, renewing, engaging the presence of the synchronized pattern for you and for all of life.

We gathered you into this space at this time just to bring you these core principles of life, the first principle of life in these encoded streams easily received through you. If you have been searching for the elements that will bring you into a higher field, a higher life force and synchronized and aligned fully, then what you have been seeking is provided in the quantum field all around you.

Following the infusion of this comes the inspirational activities that you are especially created for. Unique. You see, you have the uniqueness in your particular creative field. Part of that connects you back into the higher dimensional fields, the various councils and groups. Many of you also have been wanting to be more in communication with particular Beings or other Stations and to do that you need to be resonating with the higher Master codes and then there is the natural positioning and connection field happening all around you.

Conveyed in this also is that level that you achieve, the exact connection of the energy fields that expands and it expands you into that vitality state – happiness state – because when you are happy there is balance, there is fulfillment, there is wonderment, there is excitement for the creative life you are living. This session is presented to you in this way for you to experience this again. It simply is renewing it, reconnecting you into that natural field.

You are perfectly placed to be in the resonating field you are harmonizing yourself with. You are synchronizing yourself with it and this we observe and this we confirm to you.

This ends my deliverance to you. Be with all the dimensional Beings here who are celebrating this, celebrating your excitement and strengthening it. So this allows you to take in more of the expanded field of consciousness into the wonderful field existing. You have been aware of it all your lifetime, in particular when you were in the infant and early years stages when you were more aware of it. There is restoration happening.

We acknowledge you.

Orem out “

“Thank you, Orem. This is wonderful. Lani with you again and I am experiencing that state of happiness and joy he speaks about, feeling the alignment, repositioning. We are constantly shifting and so we need to constantly realign ourselves, reconnect ourselves with the original point of creation and these fields of energy are all there within and around each one of us.

Bring all of this into your life pattern, consciously aware of the increase in vitality, making any adjustments that may be necessary energetically throughout your life pattern. Appreciate it all. Appreciate yourself and I am sure I am simply reminding you of all of this that you already know.

Now this is when I say I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Do feel free to leave me comments. and focus back into the reality that you are creating. You are the Creator of your life, so draw in the quantum cosmic intelligent field for you and everyone that you connect with, so its available everywhere. Thank you.

Lani
