Omega Communications Portal

Soul intelligence. Repairing energy grid.

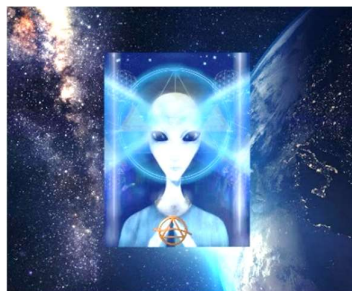

Hello. Lani bringing you these Omega Communications.

Today as I open the Portal, open the meeting room to you, you know how to relax.

You know how to connect in. I am just here to remind you that it is easy to connect into your inner self, into your inner soul and that aspect that we call your light body. It is your light body state of consciousness that comes into the gathering in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

Are you ready? Are you here? Take in a breath and as you let it out, you are here with us gathered here. The gathering gets larger. The connections you have expand the presence of you in this dimension, so let's begin this way as we connect with the Cosmic Beings here.

"Already this session has begun. Already you were called in and you had been thinking about connecting in and already receiving energy patterns for you at this time, Beloved.

Orem bringing this to you. I am familiar with this vehicle, with this energy situation and I am here simply to remind you that you are here to fulfill a greater Soul purpose and presence.

The recent gatherings have drawn you very deeply into aspects of self throughout your current life cycle and of course throughout other life cycles that may be apparent to you and that may be significant. It is all an aspect of creation necessary for you and it is all delivered to you in a framework of concepts and words, the vibration and the frequency of it which you understand.

Even if you do not hear all the words, because in this state of consciousness here you are very deeply receiving the frequency patterns, and even if you do not hear or listen to the words, you are still receiving the pulsations and the frequencies that are in effect giving you information energy patterns.

There are in some of you as we observe, what seems to be gaps missing in your energy field. Some of these will be corresponding with gaps within the cosmic energy matrix surrounding the main consciousness streams of Beings upon the Earth situation.

As you know, we are working collectively with the many Cosmic, or Galactic Beings, to repair the energy grid.

There have been several displacements and interference with the energy grid surrounding the planetary sphere which has many functions. It can protect from unwelcome beams of energy. It can also serve to incorporate more of the cosmic intelligent systems that are available elsewhere within Creation and elsewhere within other Galaxies that you may be aware of or may not be aware of. Also the gaps, the missing pieces, or the weaknesses, are able to be corrected.

You see, it is part of the correction process that you have facilitated simply by being aware that you have connected in with the Cosmic Source of all energy and that in itself, has a natural affinity to fill the emptiness - the gaps - with the energy patterns and this is what is commonly referred to as the Cosmic Plasmic Field.

It is strengthening you even as you receive the energy patterns issued in this session for you.

If you have been aware of weaknesses in your energy structure, this is the opportunity for you to remember you have access to this cosmic plasmic field.

You may be feeling it restoring elements of you. You may feel it is working through, you could say, different timelines where different aspects of you even in the current life cycle, but different aspects of your conscious Soul, are also receiving this collective distribution, or radiance, of this ultra plasmic field.

It is coming into stronger relevance to you and so where it becomes aware that there is a significant need for this energy system, it appears in the consciousness field of the Beings and thus it has appeared in the consciousness field that you are receiving.

This is an experience that is particularly available to you, though of course it is available to all Beings - all creation. Remember this. It is working to facilitate a new and advanced technological connection.

The aspects of this will become apparent in ongoing years if you measure time in years and that depends on receptivity and what is appropriate for this to come through.

Currently you are to maintain your energy systems and we have offered you this presentation in this essence of this plasmic field and so this will be a restoration and you will be feeling this within different modes of your activities.

Whatever you are reaching out or calling out for, if it is in alignment with the cosmic creation pattern you will be receiving it through this field surrounding you, surrounding the planetoid.

This is your focus currently, so remember this. You do not need to get distracted into other organizations that may call you to focus on something other than this cosmic creative field and we know there are many offerings presented.

When you align yourself with your true point of origin then this is how you collect all this information into you – the living energy matrix field for you.

This is a combination of many of the aspects presented to you through this medium and this way, so remember specific phrases or words or the feelings that you experience in these sessions. Your Soul intelligence interprets what it needs and it also will attract to you what you need and it also will allow the dropping away of old imprints that are no longer relevant in your current presence.

This is given to you in this moment in response to questions which you have put out and we have responded to in this session.

We leave it with you now, Beloved.

Orem out “

“Thank you, Orem. This is Lani again speaking.

I was aware we were taken very deep in this session, again. I guess every time we connect in, we expand further into the informational field and so we draw in more. In one sense it is like we travelled beyond our known set of learnings and so now we are already absorbing that and it will be travelling through your energy field initially because it is your energy field in your light body presence here that is receiving it.

As you now come back to be fully present in your location where your physicality is located, then it naturally flows in you and around you.

There were again reminders in this session.

So, this is the session for today and as I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal, do remember to bring your full awareness into your presence where you are. This is the reality where you are fulfilling your purpose, where you are bringing in Light Energy and Information.

I thank you.

Lani
