The Light Field. Cosmic Intelligent Light for healthy system of life

Hello. Here we are again, or perhaps you are just beginning to enter this energy system brought forward to us, and made aware that it exists all around us. It is important to receive on the very highest level that you can reach – that is an expansion of your consciousness, and your consciousness is expanding exponentially every time you enter into the cosmic intelligent systems.

As I open this session and remind you to take in a conscious breath, as you let it out, you will feel your body relax but you also will be moving into the highly aware state of consciousness and that is your body of light consciousness. This is what comes into the Station of Light, ready to receive. Here we all are – ready.

“I welcome you into this dimensional system and assembly, Beloved. I am known as Orem and I address you as the Cosmic Being who has come forward, who has listened and received the energy impulses to step forward into the awakening level of existence, the awakening group of Beings, awakened to the memory of choosing to come into this present body form to present a higher field consciousness into the developing civilization.

You might feel that the life stream on the Earth planet has developed and is coming into a good space of new technology and new facilities. In terms of the cosmic situation that you have remembered and you have experienced, the creations to sustain life on the planetoid Earth now are simply in its beginning stages. There is much more to be accomplished, to be created, to be acknowledged as a higher life form initiated from a cosmic intelligent system and so you will see that there have many situations been created that were beneath the cosmic intelligent system. They were not in line with the implications and immensity of what an enlightened state of consciousness could be creating and existing in on the present planet.

Every time you align yourself to the higher cosmic intelligent pattern for creation, you are opening the way for realizations to be made more predominantly and the realizations of course when you are attuned to the higher intelligent system of creation are always in alignment with heightening the health systems, heightening the integrity of every Being.

In this way the capacity that your individual soul has becomes filled and enriched with the environment.

The Soul as it is within the physical framework situation and energy systems, calls out, reaches out for the higher energy systems, the cosmic intelligent systems, to restore the frequency patterns that are aligned with enlightened situations, enlightened consciousness. A higher field frequency, indeed.

Always keep your focus within that higher frequency pattern. Receiving this phrase, your Soul is opened up and moves into a state of activation which in turn is activating different areas within the consciousness framework of the thoughts, mind and body situation. You might say there is a separation between those systems, but as you connect in with the cosmic field, you are drawing in the patterns of the natural Earth creation of the planet and what it provides as sustenance and you are merging that with the higher cosmic frequency. This raises the entire frequency pattern of you and the surrounding institutions that have been created and merges into the higher frequency pattern that you feel when you are in a very clear, very natural pattern of plant life growth and it is more than just plant life, it is what is in the soil and in the air around it in the light field.

You might say you are raising the light field and you are raising your awareness of it and you are entering the light field. The light field receives all of the energy information through the streams of cosmic intelligent light. Simply put to you, it is Light Energy Information informing what has been created. Uplifting it. Enlivening it. You are the prime focus for this.

In this session the prime focus is you gathering in the intelligent light systems.

In this way you do not necessarily have to send it out to particular individuals or places. This is a natural flow from you.

This is why you need to maintain your frequency pattern at a very high vibration of the cosmic light frequency.

Now that we have brought this to your attention and you are vibrating in that higher frequency this means all the cellular functions, all the pathways, all the fluids, everything you may think about as being a human form, it all needs to be vibrating at this higher frequency pattern – the cosmic frequency.

This brings you into the energy systems of the Cosmic Beings and all of the groupings loosely called the Galactic Federation, the galactic collective of the cosmic intelligent frequency patterns. This will be reminding you again, those of you in particular who remember this – it will be reminding you of your activity as part of that cosmic galactic group of beings. This relates to your origination station, the original point of existence where you were stationed as an individual cosmic being. From there you entered many different types of creations, formations, civilizations and here you are, in formation within Earth planetoid system.

It was not that you suddenly appeared. You came in, in different levels of awareness within this body formation that you have. Right from the moment when your soul entered the development of the physical form, you had been searching for and seeking the right parameters through which you could come into the formation. At this point in your travelling beyond time and space you are able to access the potential from your core original station and you bring that in through you, through the experiences of your cycle of life. You can work with this to fill the missing gaps, the missing information in your system of life.

Again, we talk about the environment and the web of creation, your energy matrix being strengthened and bringing in the higher frequency, the cosmic light frequency.

This session is focused very strongly on you as an individual because you, by your appearance in and around your physicality and the environment, you simply are presenting this same cosmic intelligent field into the areas that are surrounding your energy field.

There is this very simple presentation to you in this gathering, bringing the focus back to the importance of your cosmic soul presence. In this way your energy field is not weakened by any distractions in the outer physical world that are not part of your cosmic intelligent system.

You are in essence continuously feeding your own cosmic energy field and therefore you are not feeding into perpetuating any disturbance that you can be aware of around the rest of the planetary system.

It is always bringing your attention back to the increasing frequency pattern of everything that you consider that you are and that you are presently presenting into the cosmic creation initially of this planetoid. Enlivening it and appreciating the vital essence of the vital natural components of the energy system of Earth. You are vibrating – resonating – with those natural components and as we referred to previously, this is gathering in the energy from the core energy intelligent system within and of this planetoid and you are merging that with the cosmic intelligent systems within you.

This is our message to you in this session. Carry it with you. Feel it expanding and increasing the vibration of you, so that you are a cosmic frequency here within the planet, just as you chose to be.

And So It Is

Orem out “

“This is Lani speaking again. Thank you, Orem. This is the perfect presentation to us and for us at this moment out of time as we receive it.

I call everyone back in, into your presence within time, in the present time. That is, bringing all this deeply into the presence of your Soul, being fully present and engaged in the cosmic light field. In you. Around you. Through you.

Do make sure you bring all this back into your Soul presence and so you are presenting this in the present moment – and that is everything.

Thank you for receiving this and this ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal,

Lani
