Omega Communications Portal

Creating systems. Continuum of creation.

Hello, Lani greeting you in my space, as if you have walked through the door into my physical space, but wherever you are, we are energetically connected into the same field of communication, a communication network or matrix. It is this communication matrix that we synchronize with and this allows us to meet together in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

It is all about shifting your focus from the physicality into the metaphysicality, into the expanded field of consciousness which is natural to you. It is your base frequency. It is this base frequency of your consciousness, perhaps your conscious self, which assembles here to receive. Even if you are new to this gathering, or if you are familiar with it, it is the same principle and what you bring forward in your energy presence will synchronize and resonate with what the cosmic beings bring forward in response to our presence here.

So, shift your attention from the physicality directly into this non-physicality dimension. And this is where we begin today.

"Welcome. Orem addressing you on behalf of the collective consciousness Beings here from many aspects of creation, many different dimensional frequencies which are inhabited and we come forward as inhabitants of various dimensional frequency patterns or realities or physicalities. You have multi terms to describe this and we are accessing many of these multi terms, or labels, that you are familiar with so that we can resonate together and communicate together in this way in this field.

You already will be feeling an energy moving very strongly within your energy structure here, your energy form, your presence often referred to as your body of light. This is your frequency pattern here and the frequency pattern is a receiving and a communicating device, or system, and so this system that you are, is automatically drawing to you the relevant information patterns that are part of the fullness of creation.

This is moving you beyond the timeframe that you currently exist in and that timeframe has the presentation of structure and movable structure, changes in the structures that you visibly see and are aware of. In this space the energy field of you, your energy structure, is absorbing a different frequency which in turn has a different level of creation naturally part of it.

Your energy systems present here representing and as an aspect of your biological physical system, is automatically drawing into it the components within the frequency patterns. These will be manifesting in ways of new creations, new deliverances. These new creations will be manifesting through you and around you and this relates to the level of frequency patterns, or the expanded area of dimensional frequencies of consciousness that you connect to. That's your conscious connection into the expanded creative field and the origination of that has specific patterns that you would call a higher order. It is perfection. It is wholeness that is ready to be drawn upon by individual creatures and we are referring to you as this individual creative creature with a very high functioning intelligent frequency and you recognize the purest levels of creation.

You recognize them because they give rise in you of a level of happiness and joyfulness, of fulfilment, of recognizing that this feels right. That is your basic understanding of when you are accessing the correct creative impulses and frequencies to be manifested into all levels of creation around you.

You will be noticing you have been rapidly shifting. Perhaps shifting between a very high frequency of creativeness and in the opposite end of that there is an energy that is almost like a vacuum that needs that higher functioning frequency pattern to come into it. You could liken this to events that are occurring around you, or perhaps you would think within your physicality unit, and that is the one that is needing to draw upon the highest frequency processes to give rise to the happiness level and creativeness which comes forward. Creating happy relationships. Creating happy context in whatever reality that you are functioning within and as. This is reflected from what is occurring within you into the outer systems of creation.

We are speaking specifically about the Earth biosphere as a creative system and this is receiving the constant flow of the higher frequency pattern from the originating creative source.

Perhaps you felt the recognition of those words within you and you resonated with them and it shifted something within your energy presence here and your physicality presence which is constantly in communication with these higher vibrating frequencies where you are receiving all of this.

This is creating a dynamic flow within you. You might feel, or see an illustration of it, as energy coming in from above you as an individual world, flowing down through you to beneath your feet and up again. It is a constant circulation and each time you draw in from the higher perspective, you are enlivening and enriching the frequency pattern of you and as part of that process, this is part also of the process of the biological biosphere that you think of as your planetoid Earth. This biosphere of planetoid Earth is moving and adjusting to the higher frequencies that are being drawn into it every time you and many others correctly connect and synchronize yourself to the pure intelligent systems - the light energy functioning and creativeness.

As you will be aware, there are multi generations and multi cosmic beings participating in this function. It is a function. It is part of a life cycle. You are a life cycle. Planetoid Earth is a life cycle. Creationism is a life cycle.

Drawing constantly from the higher frequency patterns will help you to possibly remember where you have consciously participated in such creation in other existences and it is a continuation of this that you are participating in currently in your presence. This is why we remind you to be consciously vitally present in the formation and in the manifestation of the cosmic frequency patterns of creation.

You will be receiving many realizations from this presentation to you in this presentation in this moment out of moments of time measurement.

Entering this space with us, you are presenting yourself into a continuum and so while the frequency changes, it is still a continuum of creation of your presence. It is always an opportunity for you to draw on the clear pattern in this field. This is why it is presented to you and you are presented into these gatherings for you individually and for the collective consciousness.

We are with you in this. We are not more than you. We are not greater than you. We are part of the collective consciousness of oneness. We acknowledge you as this.

This is the presentation that you drew to you. Absorb it all. Continue to participate in it.

Orem out “

Lani speaking again.

Thank you, Orem. This was an expansion again into the extra ordinary areas of creation and the functions that we perform by naturally being part of the higher consciousness field – the frequency patterns.

I am sure you will be recognizing different elements within this presentation for you, and therefore while it is still fresh within you, bring it all around you consciously in your presence here and then bring it consciously back all the way through your physicality unit from above your head right through to beneath your feet.

Here you are – back again in your life pattern, your life cycle, perhaps viewing it very differently now.

So, on your next natural breath in and as you breathe out naturally, bring your awareness fully back into the present moment, into your presence in the present moment as we measure time.

Remember, you are creating because you are changing yourself and this in turn is part of the changing of the Earth biosphere – the consciousness of us all within this energetic matrix of consciousness.

Thank you. Love to all of you. This is the last transmission for 2023 so if numbers are significant to you, then this will be significant in that way to you.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
