Cosmic Alignment. Activation sequence in you

Hello. Lani with you again and bringing you into the state of consciousness where you access energy and information in a different way. There is always a different viewpoint, a different way of understanding what comes to you and what may seem familiar and then you realise it has another depth to it. Its like going for a walk along a pathway you have been along before in the bush or along a beach and you notice something different, and yet it has probably always been there. These sessions are like this. You may feel they are familiar and then suddenly you realise you haven't heard the words, your mind has wandered, and you come back and you hear something new, in a different way. So, this begins this session today with you being aware of the greater state of consciousness, of awareness, that you exist in and as and as this aspect of you, of consciousness, you are with us in the receiving state of the Station of Light.

“Greetings. Ulea and Orem together with you in this welcome space. Immediately we ask you to come with us into a different aspect where you are able to observe the entire unit that you recognize as your planetoid named Earth.

You are viewing this from a space within our existence in this Station observing you, observing the entire situations around the environment in which you exist. The environment in which you exist is one space and therefore you may be interacting in some way with energy systems which are disharmonious in other areas of the lands around the planet and yet where you are, you are in a space of harmony.

This is one of the reasons why we emphasize to you to continue accessing energy and information from the cosmic viewpoint. From the cosmic viewpoint, this is the aspect of your initial entry into body form within this biosphere of this planetoid. You are accessing energy before it got confused, disoriented, contaminated or in any way disturbed by events that occurred in the biosphere of the planetoid. This includes, of course, existences of your known ancestors.

Moving you to view from this observation platform, you then get a greater concept because as you observe beyond the biosphere of Earth, you see many other existences and realities where life exists and in this way you are able to connect in a conscious fashion with streams of energy and information from aspects of creation that have evolved in different systems to that which you have evolved in within the planetoid area.

Even from the one point where you are located, the energy field that you access and you move around the world in your clear energy field space, that is enabling the ones who are ready for that energy to also access it. It reminds them by seeing you, by observing you, by feeling your energy field, that there is something beyond what they normally would be seeing and accessing. This flows through many streams of energy and information that people can access and also of course, they are needing to rise above misconceptions and implanted ideas that are controlling them. This has existed within generations upon the Earth planet and yet, around it all has been the cosmic frequency of pureness.

This is continuing energy and information which has been presented to you, but we would ask you to view what is occurring around the planet from this distance, or from a viewpoint that is beyond those lower levels of existence. You can do this more readily now because you have accepted freeness, a freeing from imposed, imprinted information. Perhaps you think you have now printed and taken on the imprint of the higher field consciousness that truly is your soul existence.

Moving forward in the flowingness of that, then you come into fields of opportunity. Opportunities have always existed. The concepts have always existed there as opportunities and potential. Now that you have freed yourself from limitations in any way, you have access to the potential and this will flow into you through the natural attraction that the soul has because it has always had the attraction to the higher principles of creation – the vital frequencies necessary. What will you involve yourself in now? What will you create now? These are questions for you to consider for yourself.

We also would have you observe the inter-connected frequencies that exist around you. The natural frequency patterns of the energy matrix surrounding you.

This is part of the vital componentry necessary to harness the potential and flows of energy patterns for the creation for you.

This includes contact with other people, other beings, that would be a component of your life cycle and the information necessary for the life cycle. There is the natural attraction and a meeting up point as different energy intersections of streams of energy and information come together and you are the central point of the coming together of all of that energy information.

You will be acknowledging and observing that it is changing you, changing ideas that you have about you. Changing many things as you move into the freshness of the cosmic frequency. In one way it is not instantly shifting you from, for example one planetoid to another, but it is shifting you in your alignment with the original prime source of energy and information. That creates the shift in you and you create the shift around you.

There is a principle of higher cosmic management and yet it is not managing you or anything. It is a natural coming together in the intersection of time and space of different realities and the point of connection of all of those is vital for you at this time.

It actually, in your understanding, will activate a code system that exists as an energy placement within you and it is an energy code with many facets to it, and many different processes to it. This again is a natural component of your soul essence.

If you were able to view your soul as it entered the lifeform you recognize as you, you would see many of these different systems of codes, of energy fields, that are in place and which become activated in accordance with different alignment systems. Currently, you have come into a cosmic alignment system which activates this coding system within you. This allows more freedom through the energy systems and paths. You see, your physical aspect is necessary to express the creativeness that comes in as this coding sequence is activated.

This could reveal itself to you as some aspects of the physical body which may not have been clearly, healthily presenting itself as the body form. There are shifts, changes in that, in accordance with this very deep activation.

Viewing again the entire environment that is the biosphere of planet Earth you will see different areas being enlivened. A new field of light systems coming in and we are speaking about consciousness as the light systems – enlightening individuals in various placements. For some people there will be the feeling that there is actually a different life aspect to themselves they feel so different as the activation is more apparent in them. It is a new system of life and the body forms are ready for the activated new systems – new codes. There will be clearer seeing, clear knowing, clear presentation and acceptance of others and also there is the clear assistance available. In this way we are assisting you to recognize what is happening all around you and through you individually. What we are describing for you is also occurring for many other people around you. We are acknowledging you in every way.

This is what we drew you into this space to observe and to understand and to understand the relativity of what is occurring for you in this intersection in time space realities and this is also coherently occurring in other time space realities. It is a connection between the different central vortices that are activating cosmically. This has occurred while we have been addressing you in this state and now we bring you back to the receiving area of the Station.

This completes this information session to you in this gathering. We withdraw now,

Ulea and Orem out “

Lani speaking again. Thank you for that wonderful revealing, Orem and Ulea together – a beautiful combination.

Everybody, draw yourself back together into you, into one cohesive pattern, as if you have drawn in all that energy and information from different time space realities – the cosmic drawing together of everything to you.

Again, there has been a lot of energy and information presented in this session and you will be understanding this in different ways, hearing something different every time you listen to this again or read it again. You will be taking it in, in just the right way that activates it all within you. Different sequences. Continue to be activated and inspired and enlightened in this way and I look forward to meeting up with you again.

Right now this is when you bring all your focus back deeply within your body form, your life cycle. As I do this for myself, I feel excitement flowing through me, new vitality in some way, so I am enjoying this and I trust you are enjoying a similar sensation in you, whatever is appropriate for you. Take it all into you.

With love, laughter and joy I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Do remember, be fully grounded and functioning, fully aware of the reality within time as we measure time and location. Thanks.

Lani
