“Orem with you and drawing you deeper into this energy field. It is a structure where we exist and it is an energy field where we exist, where you exist, and it is part of the galactic field of information. Information are patterns informing you and activating you and all of this is known to you.

Is this a different way of presenting it to you? You have come through this pattern, and we will call them fields, the pattern, you have come through it from the energy field of the planetary Earth consciousness and you have come into this field of the cosmic energy field consciousness where we are addressing you.

In this sense, you are open to the entire cosmic intelligence and this contains all creation. There are fields of creation which you have yet to consciously experience. You may have experienced them in altered states of consciousness or you may have experienced them through slipping into altered states of consciousness if you are observing a visual presentation in some form, existing within the parameters of the earth consciousness currently.

As you consciously intend to enter the cosmic intelligent field as your individual intelligence of the soul that is you, this changes your perspective and you enter a space unique for you and yet it is part of the complex uniformity field that brings in information and it brings you into the informational field. The patterns, the codes and the creations of it. In this way we are drawing you as a constant reminder into connecting with that field.

It makes it real for you. Consequently you are able to make valid choices and creative changes in the life pattern that your soul is existing as and through. In a way, it has to exist through the patterns that you, the personality, has created and may have drawn around you from other situations.

The soul is always and has already contained the information patterns of the cosmic intelligent field ready for you to access. When you consciously access the conscious intelligent field you are contacting that within your own soul consciousness and it is the intelligent field because it is informed with the cosmic intelligent information.

Here you are – as this conscious intelligent cosmic Being working with us, being present with us as we include other galactic spheres of information. You are already harnessing, accepting and understanding some of those patterns presented to you. They will be the ones that you resonate with. Nothing else will appear in this state of consciousness as you gather here in this field with us in the Station of Light.

So, you are accessing another informative field of expanding the consciousness field of you. In this way you are embracing a greater consciousness field already existing within and around the energy field known as the planetoid Earth – its consciousness – and knowing this, also know that you are bringing in higher vibrational patterns of creation.

There have been you would say, many instances where the Earth has been shaken up. This means the consciousness of people. People have been shaken up to be aware of greater energetic planes of existence, the fields of existence of creation.

These are accessed in a simple way by the questions that individuals may ask – “how can I solve this? What needs to be done here?”

Starfield Information System Adjustment Factors. Questions

Reading these energy transmissions takes you into an altered state of consciousness - make sure you bring yourself back into the present location and time.

Hello, Lani speaking, welcoming you again into this space where you embrace the entire system that is you, not just your physical body and situation, but your entire energy system – the soul system. Maybe we could say the solar system. This is an aspect of you. An aspect that is present that is of a greater system, indeed, of light.

Are you ready to relax your body and clear your mind of thoughts and enter the receiving space with me in the Station of Light? It is easy to present yourself into this energy field. This is how we begin today.

Automatically such questions connect you into the cosmic consciousness field of the information necessary and present in that supportive field we have described.

The supportive field is the cosmic field of creation, all around you, as it is presented commonly and usefully in language, as the starfield information. Everything you see around you has an energy field and depending on your frequency and what you resonate with, you will be receiving some new information for you in your unique re patterning.

Do you understand there is repatterning occurring throughout your energy fields? The repatterning of course is in synchronization with the cosmic intelligent field. The more that you access that and ask for the information, then the more quickly you will be adapting with the adjustment factors throughout your life. The factors necessary are all part and all present within the cosmic intelligent field of you. This entire field known throughout the starfield and the presence of the Beings of the starfield consciousness. Many of them do not come forward to speak as we speak with you, but there is the presentation of the information which comes to you in your own thoughts as inspiration.

There are the adjustments as we say, in your energy field. There is a continuation of clearance of energy patterns that had been accumulated throughout your current life experience and which had perhaps been collected as the soul entered this current embodiment, so these are patterns which are being adjusted, cleared, resolved as a consequence of you questioning where do you belong, are you fully connected and accessing the cosmic intelligent systems? The question always has the answer for you. You recognize the question to be asked because you know the pattern is there to be drawn upon.

This is the viewpoint that you now are functioning from, using your conscious intelligence. Your conscious information systems.

We see many of you associate the word "intelligence" with other contexts within your civilization, so you could use - accessing your conscious information systems – the cosmic information patterns informing you. Does this feel more comfortable, or acceptable, to you? You will know deeply within you, your response.

Now this is functioning correctly and is correcting the patterns of your energy field and consciousness which have been needing to be cleared in some way, adjusted to the higher frequencies.

Thus this is complete in this moment and as we withdraw, continue to accept the adjustment frequencies.

Orem out"

Lani speaking again and I acknowledge everything that Orem has presented – in that cosmic starfield. I love the words that generate images individually for each of us. Make sure they are pure – not contaminated by information that you might receive through audio or visual presentations from the collective unconsciousness. Make sure you correctly attune to that higher information system referred to in this session – your Soul connection.

Bring this back into you. Feel refreshed, revitalised. You may feel there has been some adjustment occurring and it feels like there is a rapid change happening around us all. So, enjoy this, rest when you need it, refresh yourself during your rest times and we will meet again and continue this life experience of expansion.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Do make sure you are fully present in the present moment in the flowingness of time. This enables you to bring all of that greater consciousness information into the present moment.

Enjoy this. Thank you.

Lani
