Optimal Functioning Fundamental shifts

Lani speaking to you and getting us ready to enter that transformational and different state of consciousness - and a quick reminder – if you do not complete this session, do make sure you come completely back into your body, fully grounded, and in that place where you are consciously present in present time, you are consciously bringing in also the correct time from the cosmic energy field.

So, as we begin today, and you are totally relaxed aren't you? Your mind is open and you are curious? Just breathe yourself in your body of light and then assemble with me and others in the receiving Station of Light. This is an aspect that you are very familiar with. It is part of you being stationed on Earth and it is where we receive more clearly the energy that is available. Thank you.

“Orem speaking. Welcome into your expanded field of consciousness and your expanded state of existence, which includes this dimensional field. The dimensions which are mentioned of course are very wide and varied. They alter in frequencies. This is why you detect different layers and you talk about different layers of energy systems and yet, the quantum field embraces all of the cosmic energy fields of creation.

Earth is a cosmic creative energy field. You and the body form are a creative consciousness field. When you look at this from a different perspective and you view your life from a different perspective, then it makes greater sense that you have become more aware of your greater individual energy systems and the individual energy life which you are living as you inhabit and utilize the physical body and all of its parameters, all of its energy fields of mind and emotions.

The purpose in bringing you into the session today is to allow yourself to receive the informational patterns. You are aware there has been a fundamental shift in exchange of information which you are receiving in many levels. On a practical personal level you may have switched channels, you may have started following something extra ordinary to what you may have been doing and this may be affirming to you the correct connection that is necessary to be made.

In this way we are pointing out to you that often you can be distracted into following a different viewpoint and the presentations might do very well in presenting it to you, but does it resonate with your true soul-ness – your soul presence? That is the test that you must present to everything you do.

The question you could be asking yourself is – does this align with my soul purpose and presence? Is it part of sharing the light field of the expanded consciousness?

There are many areas you would go to that would not be receptive to the cosmic consciousness field. It is not generally your purpose to go into such lower states. The purpose is to maintain your presence in the higher vibrational consciousness fields of the quantumness of you and the energy around that becomes available for anyone else who starts questioning and wants to expand and explore the trueness of the self. It is part of saying to you don't get distracted or entangled within a controlling type civilization or presentations and you would see that many of those are based around fear or lack, dominance in some way. So you step aside from that and you have done that – you have stepped into this field of consciousness and you are drawing to you these words.

Each word has a vibration and even though it is spoken through the voice, the vibration is what you are receiving. The vibration is presented out of the cosmic frequency fields. That is the intelligence telling you, informing you, with the information that you will have been reaching out for in some way. For many people it is reaching out to stabilize conditions within the body form or within the mind system or perhaps it is in the surrounding landscape, but there is always the opportunity to rise above the disturbance and connect into the quantum field always available to you.

We are moving amongst you during this deliverance. Are you aware of this? Are you aware of the companions who have come to you and this is the assignment. This is what they are present here to do. To view you. To assess what is needed for you and around you, everyone of you, and thus you will be receiving, because you will be drawing on it, the patterns that are necessary to bring you into coherence with the cosmic frequency pattern.

There have been shifts which some of you will have felt more deeply in the energy structure of you and this gives rise to various anomalies that are outside the parameters of the normal healthy functioning system which continues to help you evolve and to develop a strong presence within the cosmic intelligent field and this in turn creates harmony within the body and brings it up into optimal functioning.

The optimal functioning relates to the prime intelligent system for the human body form. It had become, generally speaking, weakened over multiple generations and appearances within bodies within the Earth construct consciousness and currently and recently the galactic beings have been presenting the opportunities and the energy field in the support field to help restore the ongoing life form so that you who have expanded your consciousness can exist for a longer period in your flowingness of time measurement and to continue to be expanding consciousness through you and all around you. So it is not just expanding your health vitality systems. It is indeed mixed with the presentation of the galactic consciousness all throughout the Earth system, restoring it and uplifting it into coherence with the greater field of creation.

From this there will come into the appearance of people, of humanity, of science, greater support systems that exist within the galactic consciousness field with various areas of higher evolved star system presences.

The Star Beings, of course, are presenting this to you, to draw you into the consciousness field of that and utilizing your presence here within the Station of Light vehicle and field, offers you into that greater starfield consciousness. It is important for you and for all.

You have already developed the receptors to completely utilize the starfield information patterns. It is that star being intelligence that is so needed and there are many receptors in your humanoid patterns that are ready to receive this. Therefore, you need to be ready in your own thought pattern. The personality of you needs to be ready to accept this. This is a reminder because of course being present here indicates that you are ready.

Even in these short words in the experience of the words you are receiving with the energy, you have been transported into a higher field of existence. You could be visualizing this. You could simply be experiencing it throughout the processes of your presence here as a cosmic being of light and in turn your physical premises, your physical structure, is receiving it. This is what the presentation today is designed for. It is a design that you are presented with.

Many of you have been observing repeated patterns currently and recently. This is what it is. It is the pattern that you are aware of and observing it even without the full understanding still allows the energy system of you to receive it and process it. Become more aware of the patterns that you observe.

This was our purpose in bringing you into the session at this time. We withdraw now.

*Orem out

Lani speaking again. This was interesting and informative and I will be utilizing this wonderful energy we have been receiving.

He spoke about observing patterns. I have been observing patterns in that moment when you come out of sleep consciousness state and you open your eyes and twice recently when I have done that I have seen geometric patterns, briefly, within my eyes but as if I could see it projected on a wall or the ceiling. It was brief and yet I have seen two different patterns, so I thought I would mention it to help you understand what he was saying. You could probably see patterns anywhere, everywhere. It will come to you in your own unique way.

Your presence here has generated a lot of information for you, for others and as you absorb this, bring it all back into your current presentation of your cosmic self into your physical body formation – the vehicle for your cosmic self.

Focus in the present moment within the flowingness of time. Enjoy this. Enjoy being you.

Thank you. This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
