Voluntarily here. Integration. Greater frequencies. Gravity field

Lani speaking and I open the connection, the link, for you to use to come into the gathering, into the receiving aspect of this Station of Light and state of consciousness that exists. Actually, we are in a field of consciousness on this planet so it doesn't matter where you are situated or whatever timeframe you tune into this, you are instantly in the presence of this energy field.

It is just another way to help you to be uplifted and to uplift the entire consciousness field that you connect with.

This is the inspiration opening for us today.

“We are speaking to you from the expanded consciousness field where you have placed yourself as you receive this information process and flow.

It is all about flow and you are experiencing currently the extra flowing energy field coming through the sun. It is affecting and changing energy patterns throughout the consciousness field and the existence and the presence of the planetoid you are presently within and on and you are part of that, indeed. You are part of the planetary system. You are here voluntarily of course, both in respect of being here in this gathering and in your present body form through this lifetime experience you are in and you are engaged within the cosmic flow.

You may be experiencing intensity in various ways as the energy is received quite naturally through your consciousness / energy field. There is no limitation to that and yet we often describe it as being at the edge of your consciousness field.

This is an integration system that you experience and you are experiencing integrating a greater field, a greater frequency, at the edge of your energy field even though, as we say, there is no limit to that. It is simply another dimensional experience and it seems to be different to what you have been experiencing previously. Even in the day, yesterday, as you describe the day, there has been a change in the energy frequency pattern. This is why we continue to press you to engage yourself within the quasmic energy field.

This enables you to easily adapt to the intense frequency patterns, the flows, that are individual frequencies and yet it seems to be coming through in a particular pattern or surge.

They are received by individual creatures, individual species and of course you are receiving it in your individual way as a personality that interprets the energy field as part of your presence as a living energy system.

It is available as a source for you to combine into your energy field and processes. Your natural energy field and processes accept the higher frequency because it recognizes what it is and where it is from and how it is that it is available to you now and in many ways it will be restoring specific elements needed within the gravitational system that is relative to you and relative to other species. This is how the energy frequencies that the planet is receiving is also adjusting the gravitational field, so in your sensations you might feel heaviness around you at times, or it might change and you might feel something has been lifted from you and you are feeling freer and lighter. This is dependent on how your system, your entire body intelligent system, accepts the energy pattern, recognizing what it is, recognizing it is there as part of that support system – supporting you in many different ways. It is freely available to you. It is a free resource.

You are understanding this. Your natural consciousness understands what we are bringing to you in words describing the frequency patterns of the cosmic intelligent system. It is part of the overall design.

It may be that you chose to come into a body form in this experience so that you would be one of the first receivers of the higher frequency pattern and then it gathers momentum as more people integrate the higher frequency and there is therefore the expansion of consciousness into further fields of consciousness – the dimensional fields of consciousness – and thus there is the change in many living circumstances, vibration.

The frequency of some constructions will be changing because they will be integrating this higher field frequency – part of the design.

You will be observing this in different ways in your ongoing process of experiencing life. You are participating in this, you are contributing to this process – expansion of consciousness.

We observe your attention is deeply focused into what you are experiencing, understanding this, remembering the pattern as if you were trained to receive this before you entered this body life-frame. Remember? It is part of the original principle and energy system. Your core individual design.

It will be activating or awakening some of the sub-systems that exist within your energy field, within the processes of the body, so follow the sense of what that is, the understanding that is natural to you rather than being distracted into what might be offered or put upon you as some other form.

You have a natural formation that resonates with the higher dimensional field of the original design.

This is what you are and this is the presentation to you in this gathering space.”

Lani speaking again.

Interesting words, interesting information again we are receiving. It makes sense – does it to you? It makes sense to me as I absorb it and integrate it and I follow that natural longing and knowing that says we have available that full natural support system.

Seek it out in your daily circumstances when it becomes apparent there is a need in some way to fulfil a lack, or a process, that you are reminded of or you are engaged within. We are all individuals so it will be necessary for you to work out the appropriate way for you and to bring into you the appropriateness of the message. Aspects of it will indeed be appropriate for you, for all of us.

This was the session today. Has it completed a search or a question you have had?

Bring all of this into you again and enjoy the sensations of the increased frequency bringing in that support system referenced in this session - and that is all today.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Thank you, thank you to everything that has made this available and you have made yourself available to receive it, just as I have. I acknowledge that, thank you.
