“Welcome. In uniting in a consciousness field and consciously doing this, enables you to synchronize every aspect of you with the quasmic intelligent field.

It is all beginning. It is always present. It has no end. The beginning is part of the process of you exploring and expanding into the quantumness that is consciousness that is you.

Is there any more we can tell you about, to offer to you, to help you synchronize your field with it all? You will feel and sense that synchronization happening, as if you are a vast shining star, or a centre point that is shining out and every beam intersects with a vast network of consciousness.

This is one way of describing to you where you are at in your realization and this is from the central existence of you, existing, receiving this, which in turn may be vibrating out into every intersection that you have and will have and always have had, into the vastness that is consciousness.

Bringing this more into your personal aspect of your presentation into the body vehicle currently, this enables you to connect into the fabric of energy of creation and therefore what you wish to bring in will come in because you are accessing the potential that is everything.

When you embark on this journey to expand your consciousness and to, as you would say, improve your life pattern in every way that you can imagine, then you are accessing the potential for all of that.

So, if you are focusing purely on your own bodily functions, or your family, or the country, or the planet, in bringing it into a higher level of existence, then you are increasing your capacity to do that because you are accessing information sequences from the collective consciousness of intelligent creation.

You are being given the intelligence here to synchronize yourself with the vastness of creation and the importance of you doing this is again emphasized for you.

Remember, this was a focus for your presentation – your core presentation of the essence of you - within this lifeform.

Therefore, if you have any thoughts that might get in the way of being the best that you are, presenting it always, this is the opportunity to allow those thoughts to leave you, because they are not really yours. They have been imposed on you from various presentations to you over the life stream you are living in the flowingness of time.

The flowingness of time is actually the experience of expanding yourself into the higher realization and the synchronization of yourself with the quasmic field of intelligence.

This incorporates more intelligent design from the original concept for the beautification of life. You are a vast collective existing in this dimensional frequency sphere known as the planet where you are.

If you go beyond that, again you are entering another phase of the quasmic intelligent field of creation. Right now, right here, you are within the consciousness known as the planet's consciousness and existence and this is where you are most importantly utilizing your connections into the quasmic field of creation.

Synchronize with Intelligent Design
Utilize quasmic field. Amplify your frequency

Lani with you again and we come together as a group, connected in consciousness, always. Perhaps we have been over several incarnations, perhaps this is the first time, perhaps it is the only time where we are presented into this lifeform to connect with the exact frequencies of the quasmic intelligent system!

These opening words are serving to bring us together in an open state – an expanded state - of consciousness. So, as we move together in the collective state known as the Station of Light, I feel we are in a huge gathering space – maybe an auditorium – where everyone can receive and hear perfectly.

This is how we being today.

Feel yourself drawing in the threads of information that you have connected with in, from and within the quasmic matrix of consciousness. Those intersecting nodes and points that we refer to that you have always connected into, but as you clear yourself more to clearly connect, then you are widening that perception and you are bringing in a clearer examination of your life and a clearer perspective of what life is and you are clearly accessing the increased frequency patterns Earth is receiving through your central solar portal.

This is not new information to you. This is reminding you so that you continue to correctly amplify your energy frequency – clearly connected.

This is the presentation to you in this gathering.”

Lani speaking again and I felt the gentle withdrawing so that again I am aware of the vast auditorium area, expanded even further, open into the cosmos – what we perceive as the expanding presentation of other life existences, other galaxies, other exploration methods.

It is all part of the potential of the quasmic design of you.

Again, this excites me to bring this through to you and also because I am experiencing it as I present and allow the words to be presented through me.

Thank you, again, for receiving this.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Continue to be inspired in your life.
