Omega Communications Portal

Designed to receive replenishment
Quasmic framework

Hello, Lani speaking with you again, from my station – from where I am located – the “I” that is me - the energy system, the greater consciousness that is me from where I am stationed.

As you listen to this, close your eyes and expand your senses and awareness into being aware that as you are within your own station of light we connect immediately as if we are in a giant room connecting in one space. This is often referred to as the collective consciousness - gathered together into a space such as the Station of Light that is described.

Already you have become aware that you are fully connected into the field of consciousness which is the overlaying matrix of life, of light, of everything that is needed.

Beginning in this way of course you are already receiving what you have been asking for, perhaps what you have been curious to know more about.

This is where I withdraw and allow the collective consciousness to communicate with us all.

“Arriving in this connected state of consciousness with us all known as the Collective Consciousness, the quantum field of life, then you are aware you have access to all information that is required and the information is energy to facilitate the expansion and clearing, perhaps, and advancement of your individual energy systems.

These energy systems include the vital essence that is you, you might say your soul essence, and it includes the energy patterns that are the constitution of the physical form. It is one and yet there are definite experiences of energy shifts as you think about the requirements for the whole body system – the energy system – and what is required for that.

On a continual basis, as you continue to consciously access the immediate frequency that is available always, and this is the prime intelligent design system, then you are replenishing the resources. It is necessary to continue to consciously access this collective supply system from the original design creativeness – the creation aspect that you came from.

You knew, your intelligence knew, that you would need to continue to access the changing frequencies beyond the changing frequencies of the civilization, but into the expanding frequency of the collective consciousness from original source pattern – the design – the quasmic field.

It is from this field that as you replenish all resources and you may be aware that you are increasing the vitality systems of you and activating some vital systems that needed to be more active, then you have a greater awareness of what is occurring in the civilization pattern around you.

Where the focus could be on particular items, particular substances, individual people and if you focus only in that level, which is the content of the civilization, you are switching off your receivers that are naturally connected into that matrix field.

This is the vector of creation that we remind you that you step into, that you access to replenish yourself and to acquire energy information patterns suitable for you as you continue to bring in that higher energy field frequency into you.

This is what you were designed to receive and this is what you have designed through this vehicle to access as a reminder, always. Sometimes you need a pathway and we have progressed as a collective consciousness through different pathways which are like connecting cords to the existence of the prime intelligent design of all life.

We understand that you move out of that - in one sense of understanding – you move out it when you move into your sleep consciousness state and then when you emerge from that sleep consciousness state you need to re-activate the connections – plug yourself back into the prime intelligent design.

This is the way you manifest what is available to you to enhance your living situation, some supply system, some new design to facilitate the helpfulness, the way that you help in the civilization as you bring in the higher quantum field from the design system – the original quasmic design system.

This may be resonating deeply within your individual body mind intelligent design system and that system automatically needs to be connected and always needs to be reconnected to the original quasmic design system.

You will feel the release of patterns within you that may have been waiting for particular words and the energy of the words to help you balance what has been occurring in you and around you, the arising perhaps of symptoms and so you tend to focus on the symptoms rather than going up to the original pure design pattern for the correction and reinstatement of the clear pattern.

Speaking these words with the vibration that comes through, there are many other people around your planet system who have automatically received the frequency field and this can give rise to what you describe as change of mind, change of circumstance and the ones who “stand” for certain rights as an individual within the conventions of the lower field civilization – many of those can immediately awaken with a change within their consciousness field. In a sense, when you access the prime design – the quasmic design field – there is the energy radiated out into the overlaying quasmic field of life.

This is what you have come here to receive and understand and to hear the frequency within this word deliverance to you. You are within this energy field.

We have described it previously as a framework – a quasmic frequency framework, simply because in your language a framework is like a skeleton that holds up a building construction, or your own physicality construction and so you understand what that is. It is a strong connecting field – a matrix field – and this is what you are accessing when you step into the conscious connection with the prime intelligent design.

You have received this again – activating, initiating anything that needs to be activated as part of the pure original design, reconnecting everything back to the original coding. This is your life sustenance – the light frequency pattern.

We withdraw now.”

Lani bringing myself back into our collective group where we began this session, connecting in from our own stations of life and light and so we all facilitated this session. I am just speaking to you, telling you what you have done and achieved and opened to receive in this connection today. It is a continuous flow of course

Have you found that when you listen again to a session you receive more energy and pattern and perhaps realizations? This is what it is all about, as well.

Now move back into time as we measure it in the flowingness of experience and be filled with what you personally received today.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal and this grand link-up. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

Thank you.

Lani
