“As we connect with you in this collective state of consciousness, you are more open to receive the energy information that you have acquired, that you know is natural to you.

This is your natural state of existence where you exist beyond any limitation of time, space, materialism, different realities – you exist in a central point of consciousness because you are a central point of consciousness yourself.

The benefit of accumulating and gathering in spaces such as this keeps you more deeply connected into the fulness of the state of energy of consciousness that you have as your natural state of existence.

There are times as you continue to expand upon this and as you bring your full awareness into sensing this space that we are gathered in with you, you are personally, individually, expanding out into connecting to other cosmic frequencies which may be necessary for you at this time.

The very quasmic self of you, the original state of your existence, understands entirely what is needed for you and thus this is a way to bring you into connecting with that, freely and easily.

You will perhaps be linking beyond the words that you are hearing or reading and you have already ascertained and connected into frequency patterns that will be bringing an aspect into your physical sensing what is needed to go beyond the limits of Earth time space.

There are limits of that and yet the limits are not fixed because you are able to extend your consciousness and connect beyond any limiting framework that the concept has been presented and represented to you of what the human life span is.

You see, you have the capacity to expand that life span and in so doing, you are accessing the more available and always present existing field of consciousness. This is stabilizing many conditions around you.

This is also clearing away compressed or gathered in memories. There are aspects of the human physicality consciousness that tend to protect itself and in that protection it is shutting off the fulness of the quasmic energy field that is needed.

In this moment therefore, as you allow yourself to receive and accept this very powerful presentation, you are accessing the energy of freeness, freeing you from any control, confinement, or anything that your body had created as a protective formation.

You would understand that many people would say “I cannot cry because I may not stop”, or even “laugh openly because I may not be able to stop”. So you see the aspects that you have been aware of, perhaps subconsciously, unconsciously, and yet there could be these different aspects still present within your localized energy field – in your life station of your physicality life form and how you present yourself into the civilization as it exists.

There is an aspect that is inherent in you all of more – I want more, I want more understanding, I want more light – because when you move into that understanding of what consciousness is, then you move away from wanting more of the pure materialistic level which does not satisfy that deeper longing, to access the fulness of the energy information systems. That is your natural existence, your presentation of you naturally into this life form.

Omega Communications Portal

Memory protective formations Capacity to create, expand, enliven

Hello, Lani speaking again with you, opening the energy system here that we have created, known as the Omega Communications Portal. A gathering space. A space where you can read, or listen to the words containing the energy, presenting the energy to you – the multi dimensional aspect of you. Your physical personality self and the essential light self – the essential soul energy of you.

Here you are in your station of light, surrounded by light. Do you surround yourself in a field of light? Do you place yourself within that field of light that exists always? These sessions are to remind you that you are this Being of Light.

So, as we gather together we are within a central gathering space within the galactic – the quasmic – station of light. This is how we begin today.

It becomes simple when you realise this and the simplicity is that you are an energy system, a system of light presenting a certain style of that system of light into the body form and into the circumstances, the experiences, that exist around you.

Open your awareness to receive. You see, you have unlimited capacity to express the original design of the quasmic field. You are embracing, you are encompassing, a capacity to create new worlds, to enliven new worlds with the presentation of the original quasmic design system in many ways,

There are some of you receiving this who may have the sense that this is what you were doing when you were in a different lifeform but still present within this overall life station known as the Earth planetoid, where you had a different form, but you were conscious. This same level of quasmic consciousness is present in your current body life form, expanding the energy systems of you.

Even within the locality – the physicality of your body systems – there is the capacity of those to expand, to enliven and therefore access a greater level of vitality and the vitality is energy which is consciousness.

This is unbounded. This is you receiving and reacting to the quasmic intelligent field flowing around you, touching aspects of your thought patterns, giving you some impetus to consider more. This is what you are receiving and is happening in this presentation.

You are responding to the prompting that the quasmic intelligent system and of course your individual quasmic intelligent system responds to that, reacts to it and gives you little hints, little concepts, little ideas, possibilities, of something that you are expanding into and creating.

It does not mean you have to create a huge building, or structure, a big new forest. It is whatever comes to mind for you to do, to create some happy meal, to create some happy meeting perhaps, so you see you are responding in many different ways to the overall quasmic intelligent field – the pure design system.

This is you and the more that you access that pure design system, the more free you become of anything that has been restricting that connection for you. Feel this working in different ways throughout different aspects of you that you recognize as your body form and your quasmic light form.

You are fully present as this quasmic light form.

This is what you presented yourself with in this session. Let it be.”

Thank you. This is Lani speaking again.

I am thanking every aspect of creation that has brought this session in to be received by each and every one of us in our individual ways, recognizing of course that we are part of one quasmic intelligence. Connected in every way. Connected to the ones who explore cosmic intelligence further, whether it is beyond Earth station or whether it is deeply within the waters – it is everywhere.

You – we – are one consciousness field.

This is the presentation today in this session.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal and of course you will be bringing all this energy frequency deeply within you, deeply into the parts that you felt you have held apart or been secretly protecting yourself. It just needs this quasmic light field.

This is what this presentation is all about today. Bring yourself back into the present moment as we measure time and the experiences through time.

Enjoy being your quasmic light self.

Thank you.
