It is simple. Wake up. Enlighten Self

This is Lani bringing to you these Omega Communications. Another view, another time, another opportunity to step out of Earth time into dimensions of creation and original source energy. Are you with me?

Let your mind and body relax and be with me in the essence, the spirit, of you and we gather together in a receiving state in the Station of Light and we are ready to absorb the frequency in the words that will come forth.

This is how we begin today.

“Welcome. As always, you are welcomed into this receiving state and where you are assembling with those of us within the collective consciousness, of the collective consciousness, of the greater galactic field, the quasmic institutional pattern of creation.

You understand that the pattern of creation is likened to an institution because it is an inner state of your cosmic intelligence.

You are part of that quantum network – the matrix of quasmic intelligence that exists and so you are moving into this state of co-creation with the central intelligence source of all creation.

You may feel you have changed or diverted from what you have been doing in the recent moments where we have separated from you – perhaps we will just say - in between the previous transmission that you linked in with you have changed.

The change comes about from the absorption of the frequency pattern and how it promotes in you another opening to the powerful central light existence of you, existing in you and as you and through you, always. This is always the message in one way or another, to confirm that this is correct and to confirm that you are remembering to isolate yourself from energy which will lower your frequency and therefore you are promoting yourself into the frequency state of upliftment, expansion of consciousness.

Expanding your consciousness field to the interactive field within the matrix of the quasmic intelligent field always allows freedom to occur at a greater level.

It means that you are clearing any accumulated patterns that are no longer necessary, are no longer even needed and were never needed to bring you to this point of connection of awakening – in your terms. Many people use the term “awakening”. It is just presenting yourself back to the original pattern, fully connected into the prime intelligent design – and thus it is.

You see, the words that are delivered in sessions as this is, carry a frequency. They carry you deeper or further, a greater field, more energy patterns, more light – more enlightenment. That is the description of waking up, because you lighten yourself up from a state that is like a deeply involved dream connection into sorting dramas or creating dramas in some way or another. So, when you enlighten yourself, you lighten your frequency, all of that drops away and you merge more completely into this quasmic collective state of consciousness – existence.

Arising from this are certain creations, reconstructions, livelihoods, everything that you are needing and the need might be beyond your physical awareness and knowing what that need is but the need arises from the pure energy existence that is within you. It always is, until you leave this physical body and the pure energy essence of you continues to exist.

In the present circumstances you exist within and create, you are creating pathways, such as using this channel, to connect yourself, reconnecting yourself back to the original point of creation. The pure design system.

It opens more pathways to you of realization of accessing the fullness of your memory, the capacity you have of enjoying the creationism around you that you bring forth – always creating in accordance with the prime intelligent design brings you into joyfulness, playfulness, happiness. Those are the descriptions of the reconnected state. Upliftment. Enlightenment. Enjoyment.

This is the access point that you have come to acknowledge and realise and if you have already experienced this, use this as confirmation and amplification of those states described, of the reconnection to the quasmic intelligent design.

This does incorporate of course many styles, many states, many types of civilizations. You are accessing the original design concept for everything and therefore you are connected with the frequency pattern of that design and this will manifest through you in some way that you will recognize, understand, utilize, move into.

It may be currently you are considering change; perhaps you have indecision about the next step. The way for the clear pathway to come into your realization is to consistently reconnect to the prime intelligent design of everything – the quasmic self of you.

It is simple. We keep telling you it is simple. There is no need to do specific violent exercises or mind games, other manipulations in some way. It is simply opening up to reconnect to the nexus point that is known to your soul individual life force and in that way you are instantly connected to the quasmic collective consciousness.

We have brought you to this point and we leave you in this connection for you to experience it.

You will be allowing it to enliven more aspects of self. There are many aspects of self, including your body mind consciousness, your awareness, the sensations, everything that relates to the physical type existence. Remember there is always more beyond that to the quasmic existence and this brings everything into the order.

We leave you in this deepest connection for you at this moment in this junction coming together within this overlaying matrix of light and life.”

Thank you. Lani speaking again with you.

Bring all that beautiful expansion, enlightenment into you. I am bringing it into me. Bring it into you, everything that is needed for each of us as unique energy frequency patterns, but all of the one design.

It is very enlivening and uplifting. That is my thoughts, my awareness of it.

Bring all this back now into your life pattern and remember the life pattern from this moment includes the entirety of what you have experienced as this life pattern and it is helping you to evolve the extension of the life pattern in accordance with the quasmic intelligent design.

I find this to be exciting. This is left with you now. This is what you are feeling and able to utilize. It may only be one or two words that you resonated with in this session. That is enough to remind you and to click you back into the appropriate true connection for you.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal

Thank you.

Lani
