Feel and absorb Light. Conscious Receptor. Existing dimensionally

These sessions began in February 1988 with various people coming into the group until now it is simply recorded and put out there into the energy waves, into the quasmic matrix around us all. The energy can be received in many different ways.

This is Lani bringing this session to you today. Every day in every way we draw in, or we create something new, or we do something in a different way. We have a different thought. We are breathing in different air. We are tuning into different frequencies every day because the frequencies coming through the solar portal change every day.

Some things remain constant and one of the constants around us is presenting ourselves consciously into the collective consciousness.

So, come with me again and station yourself within the Station of Light simply to connect with the collective consciousness in the quasmic energy self of Yourself, and we will see what we bring in to receive in this session.

“When you bring yourself consciously to be within the quantum collective consciousness field there is an automatic adjustment occurs and you will be aware that there have been energy information patterns that you have collected in your daily livingness that do not fully support you in every way, or perhaps you remember experiences during your conscious travelling through the journey of your lifetime that you do not wish to revisit or experience again, but in the energy field they still exist. The opportunity is always presented, when you present yourself into the quasmic consciousness field, for those to be released and cleared and it is your intention which does this.

Intentionally, when you present yourself into the clearest information patterns, then there is nothing to hold onto – you simply release – you let go of what you have been holding onto in some way in deep recesses of your consciousness field, but by your willingness to extend your consciousness into a vitalization state and re-energizing you and reactivating latent capabilities, then there is only the light system that is present in you.

The light system we refer to is that creative intelligent design for you and if it is a conscious intelligent design for you, it is the intelligent design for all life.

You will see that the natural kingdom responds in a natural way. They do not create deviations, they do not create technology to interfere with any natural energy system, but they work together with energy systems and patterns that perhaps other levels of the animal kingdom will hear the information patterns and respond to those.

Are you hearing and are you sensing the information patterns presented to you through the incoming rays through the solar portal into this vector of planetary creations? Do you feel those rays, the frequency patterns? Do you feel them clearing patterns around you and throughout you?

You are reminded to tune into that frequency you naturally receive within the light rays. Move beyond anything that has been an interference limiting the light rays and remember, if you are limiting the light rays by putting something over your face and eyes, remember you need to take that off to experience the pure light rays, with your eyelids closed and not for a long length of time. It can take merely seconds of your measurement to absorb the light rays. Your energy field absorbs the rays of light – the frequency pattern. Do you allow that to happen?

In the current civilization time it becomes apparent that you need to be conscious of doing this and of allowing those rays of light to bring the functionality of your entire systems into the optimal processing frequency, the alignment of it.

Anything that you feel is an abnormal indicator is simply an indicator that the pure energy frequency is needed in those areas.

Because you are consciously part of the quasmic collective consciousness, then if you observe something elsewhere in your environment, the energy is available to those areas. You know this. It is ready to be received by those who are the conscious receptors.

You are a conscious receptor. Have you realised that? By consciously receiving the light frequency pattern and information you are functioning within that and in accordance with that.

We are presenting this again in a different way to you in this assembly so you have a different perception of it and reception of it.

This is what you have placed yourself within by receiving this transmission of energy frequency.

Those of you who have entered the deeper dimension of this energy structure of this Station of Light may be observing the surface of the planet, you may be observing yourself in many different variations of your life essence coexisting multi-dimensionally. Observing from this quasmic field, you are participating in the overall deliverance of the same frequency into those dimensional aspects where you are coexisting. This is part of the quasmic matrix – the frequency that exists throughout consciousness and it exists throughout the consciousness of what you consider to be your current lifeform, within the very basic function within every cell into the deepest frequency patterns.

In this way you will be delivering information frequency patterns deeply within the body intelligent systems. You might feel you are quelling fires, or inflammation, you might feel you are clearing blockages. You might feel you are simply enlivening systems bringing them to optimal frequency and functioning and that is always in accordance with the pure intelligent design system.

There is ongoing expansion within that system.

You will allow yourself to participate in that ongoing expansion into the reality of that which is life. It is an essence. It is the essentialness from what and where you stemmed from – always connected into that.

This is the information frequency delivered around you, through you and you drew this to you in this gathering.

We withdraw now.”

Lani speaking again and I am momentarily aware that I am in a space with many of you and we are observing the planet beneath us, as if we are within a Station well above the planet.

We might view it as a very small pattern of existence in comparison with what we know and sense is all around us in a broader vision and sensing position, or we might view it as if we are above but very close to the planet's surface.

It is all about allowing the frequency that you bring in of the pure intelligent design to be everywhere. It is an allowance. You do not even need to direct it. Knowing that it is everywhere is what is required.

Bring this all back into you now as you move directly and instantly returning to your body physicality in the locality, in the energy locality that is you.

I thank you again for receiving this and this ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
