“You are acknowledged – the You who has presented the essence of you into this receiving state and Station and you may be aware it is as if you have come through a portal. You have come through many different intersections of experience and the intersections of experiences are according to time-frame references, different civilizations from different planetary systems, indeed. So, you see you are a collective yourself – a collective consciousness – a point of collective consciousness being initialized into the formation of your physical body and now able to appropriately centre yourself within the appropriate energy frequency patterns.

The appropriate energy frequency patterns may relate to your physical movements around the planet. They may relate to your physical movements as you measure time and they may also relate to external influences from the energy you are being enveloped in from the cosmos, from the central solar portal and more.

You see, the light that is coming through to you and to all life on your life station is stimulating various plant growth and awakening centres within the intelligent beings and species and in the humanoid species in particular the energy is awakening many of the dormant type cellular activities that are an integral part of your original pure design system and this pure design eliminates and discards certain inappropriate patterns that had been taken into your physicality in whatever way.

We have found this to be necessary to explain to you as the energy comes in because there will be clearing occurring of some deeply locked in sensations or patterns or emotions which give rise to certain physical discomforts.

It is part of the discontinuing of previously discordant patterns that are affecting your essential life pattern.

This gives you the opportunity to more powerfully be present and to bring in the frequency patterns clearing, harmonizing and upgrading and enlivening the systems that are already in place. We are speaking about multi-dimensional systems within the harmonic grid that surrounds you all – the energetic matrix field. Already in that quasmic energetic matrix field are the greater systems that work for civilizations. There has been enough improvement and shifting in consciousness to allow this to come forward.

Many of you have felt there was something you were specialized in and you had come into this current lifeform to perform, to be present to do. This is bringing into clarification what that is for you.

Those of you who are receiving this understand this and you are the ones who have been aware there was a greater purpose to life and this is coming into that central nexus point within that quantum matrix field and you are participating in the activation and the revelation of that higher frequency civilization.

This is one of the major points of what we have been bringing you into through all of the presentations to you.

We have always encouraged you to align yourself to the quantum field – the highest point of consciousness from your origination point. This is why.

This quantum field and the dimensional matrix of the civilization that you would call new has been waiting for you to fully connect with it, to realise it is there around you, appearing.

Revealing the higher frequency civilization Positive Light Infusion

Hello. Lani speaking with you and you may have noticed there was no session a week ago, but we are back on board again, in a different time, in a different space of frequency patterns.

Have you noticed the change in pressure and energy in the last two weeks? It is all about us receiving the higher frequency pattern and it brings us into alignment more strongly to the quasmic field of energy and information.

Again, we meet in this way from our individual placements around the Earth and we gather in our conscious state together in the receiving area of the Station of Light. Are you ready to receive? I withdraw to allow the collective consciousness to bring us into the deep state of receptivity.

It will come forward in many gentle natural ways and already you are finding if you are presenting yourself in a welcoming, understanding way to other people, they respond in the same way and you notice the overall support or prime presentation to you – something essential to the central intelligence of you which feels correct.

This is why you are reminded to always feel what is correct to whatever is presented to you in whatever way through whatever systems. It is your intelligent system that will let you know if that is correct and if what is being offered to you is correct for you, if it resonates with your frequency pattern.

You are being helped with this. Your energy field is being cleared continuously every time you connect consciously to the quasmic energetic field of intelligent information.

Remind yourself of this, just as we are reminding you of this.

This is what was needed to be delivered to you in this gathering and we will continue further upon entry into the next collective gathering.”

This is Lani speaking again.

It feels wonderful to have presented this to us all and you may be experiencing that feeling that you are enveloped in a central support field.

This is true. This is part of the reality you are participating in.

You will feel it. You can draw it around you everywhere you go. This is important as well.

Now we bring ourselves back into connecting fully to the physicality that you are, fully present in this physical body and yet also fully present in other dimensional aspects of you. Connect into the entire systems for you, revealing this same information that has been revealed to you today and it is revealed to you in every circumstance in every experience flowing through time and where time flows through the experiences.

Now you will feel the difference within you and around you.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Feel that you are the central light system in your life, the system of your life and you are naturally receiving the supportive field. It was referred to us that it is emanating through, from beyond our central sun and we are receiving multi level information patterns, enlivening us. It is a very positive infusion that we are receiving currently. I felt the need to remind you of this.

Thank you.

Lani
