Conjunctions. Ancestral ties. Shifts Functioning Model

Hello, Lani with you again. Are you ready to expand and go further into the realms – into the dimensions that are natural to you – remembering who you are and why you are here.

To help you with this, I draw you together as a group into a central receiving space within what we call the Station of Light – a state of light, a state of consciousness – and yet it is a reality. It is a real space.

It is easier as we connect in this way to allow the images, the sensations, and allow yourself to expand into those and therefore you shift your frequency into light frequency, of the expanded dimensions, of your natural state of consciousness.

This is how we begin today in this session.

“We greet you into this space and envelop you in this field of consciousness that, has been said, is very natural to you. This creates a clear space for you again to regenerate many systems within you.

These systems we refer to at this time are upon you and they are part of your natural existence. We are speaking about your intention of bringing your consciousness as a field of light, as a Being of Light, directly into this part of you that is here with us and as you do that, you realise of course, it is everywhere. You are not separate from that which is here receiving this. You are not separate from this as you might think where your body is stationed. It is all with you. It is all one, but in this clear space you have the clearness to absorb and take the opportunity to release what has been being held deeply within levels of your consciousness.

It is part of the natural acquisition that you acquire memory systems that had been retained in the Earth-field and in the Earth-field consciousness of the ancestors. You do not need to be modelled by that or contained by that in any way. They are suggestions and as you move into the clear state, clearly connected into your pure state of consciousness which is the design of creation, you understand that the other realities from other existences or ancestral ties in any way are not real. They are not really yours. They are not yours to live your life by.

You are at this point where there is a conjunction within fields of consciousness and this is the dynamic process that we call the matrix of consciousness existing in the greater quasmic field, more than the matrix that people say is an overlaying energy system around the Earth.

You have already moved beyond that by simply allowing yourself to be fully present in this reality. From this reality you will be perceiving what members of the Great Council of Light have often presented to this group gathering and other group gatherings and to individuals, the existence of the crystalline cities which of course are, you would say, are an advanced existence, from what you are living currently in the body. We remind you, they are consistently all around you.

When you gather in this state you are being – perhaps rewired - would be your words. You are connecting into that field. You may think it is just a state of futuristic dream state of possibilities, but how do you create that? Certainly you create it by coexisting with the field, the intersecting fields, that are presently presented to you.

This is you connecting to the nexus point into this quasmic energetic field of existence. Bring yourself together, fully aligned in this.

We use these words carefully because you have been experiencing times when you have been in effect, in your words, pulled apart, lost, do not know what you are meant to be doing. That is a common experience when you have been disturbed very deeply by interruptions in your connection into the quasmic energy field.

Again, these sessions that you enter with us are the reconnection point assisting you to remember and again bringing in the pureness of the pure design of consciousness, bringing that light into you – lighting you up.

You are this field of light and as we observe you receiving this, we see the individual energy field around you illuminated, clearing some pathways that needed clearing. Some pathways do not need clearing because they are already fully aligned and flourishing with this – external, in a way – but it is your internal process of allowing the true connection with the prime source – the quasmic creative force.

As you allow this to be in you and through you, again you may be experiencing shifts. Shifts in time. Shifts in thought patterns. Shifts in body sensations, bringing it all into reality in accordance with the original intention and design – pure.

It was a functioning model, you see, for the current humanoid race, functioning perfectly in all ways. This is something that is natural to you and this is what we remind you about and this is sufficient.

You will be flourishing with this, expanding more and more at ease with yourself, with the processes of your life, with intersections that had occurred in your life which enabled you to shift your course and to choose, remembering that you had already made the choice. You were already constructing the dimensional existences named the cities of light, filled with enlightenment. Fill yourself as this enlightened state of existence.

This is what you have drawn through in this gathering and so you will continue to process this, allowing yourself to be this that has been revealed to you as your natural state. It does connect you with the many others who are involved in bringing this pure design order into reality and shifting the reality that exists into the dimensional reality of those cities of light.

You are built for this. And so it is.”

I acknowledge this energy system that has been brought to our attention again. It is interesting that sometimes we need a reminder.

This is the presentation today and again, you have been fully present out of Earth time space reality and now you bring this enlightenment, enrichment in every way, deeply back into your physicality. Feel the shifting which will be occurring as a natural response, because your consciousness remembers and it remembers how to restore this pure design into the functionality of the body-mind presence.

Be fully present consciously, bringing this into the timescape that you exist within. Present time, present moment, present place.

Thank you again for receiving this. I trust it inspires you.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
