Omega Communications Portal

Clear Emotional Impacts Who you are. Why you are.

Hello, Lani with you again. Come and join me as we transit again into a deeper state of consciousness. One that is very real to you. It is a reality. The true essence of you is very familiar with it and this way of connecting in as a group with the same intention, this amplifies your state of receptivity, if I could call it that. So, we meet together in a sphere known as the Omega Communications Portal and then we move into the sphere known as the Station of Light.

It is an interface between your consciousness and the quantum quasmic consciousness field.

This is how you draw the information into you to fulfil whatever you need at this time. (I was going to say energy and information and patterns.) it could be anything.

Just be open to receive the energy flow.

“Welcome and indeed you have already created the pattern here for you to fully, individually, interpret and receive. Those of us delivering this message – the collective consciousness field – understand what you are drawing upon from the supportive field to fulfill you in some way. To fill something that you are seeking.

The basic point of course, is for you to re-establish your powerful, still, centre within your own living experience within the living body vehicle you have at the present time. This is the way that you express the pure essence of the greater order of creative field in and through you into the civilization. Changes result from this.

The greater field that you access from the creative source – the pure design system – means that you are allowing that to come into the design of your life and you therefore are redesigning your life in accordance with the pure creative design system. This is the prime focus for you.

You may feel that you remember people saying to you – “you have to complete contracts, you have to learn, you have to suffer.” Those are energy systems that are located within different fields of consciousness you become immersed in when you enter within the body field.

As you access energy systems such as this in this collective consciousness sphere, you are freeing yourself of those confinements of the pressures put upon you which are passed through different people and different patterns of existence reflecting to you perhaps similar messages.

In entering this sphere you are separating yourself from that and you become nourished, you become enlightened, you become the true essence of you again accessing the pure elements of your original point of creation. This is the point of these gatherings that you come into.

We give you some moments, as you would think about time, to fully absorb what is being presented to you.

You may feel there are windows being opened and a light is shining upon you, giving you understanding of the events that have brought you to this gathering and as you feel that light and understanding and realization upon you and within you, this moves through the life experiences you have had and it releases the emotional impact they have upon you.

Those emotional impacts in whatever way can feel like pressures upon you, like a weight upon you in different areas. They are simply matters, emotional responses to experiences, that you have allowed to leave an imprint upon you.

Now you are allowing yourself to have the full realization and clearance of those patterns.

This is an interesting time you have created for yourself, coming to these realisations and coming to the access point.

This indicates you are aligning with the pure elements of creation – as you say, the light that shines upon the world through the central sun – you could call that as a soul. It is the central emanating point designed to allow a higher frequency to pass easily and to be visibly and energetically experienced by living matter within the solar system that you are aware of but, in particular, focused on you where you are engaging in the reformation and reconstruction of the original pure design intention.

This is what you are busily engaged within and this is what we simply came forward to tell you in this session.

You are the central point within this gathering for yourself.

This is the entirety of this message that you have drawn upon in this gathering.

Therefore, we withdraw and you receive the frequency, the energy system, that is fully presented to you in this way.”

This is Lani speaking again.

I am expressing my personal gratitude for the energy information system today - Light, Energy and Information that you are immersed within - and you have brought it around you in the unique way for you.

You will be factoring it into your system. Remember, your light field and your physicality field is a system designed to work in accordance with the pure design system.

We have brought it back in this session I think to simple ways of understanding who you are and why you are here in this life currently.

Therefore, bring your attention fully back into the life that you are realising – the reality that you are changing – infusing it with the pure design system.

Do you feel changes? Please feel free to pass on comments to me and let me know your responses to the energy and then that it makes it real when you perhaps verbalise it or put it into print, expressing it in some way.

Now are you fully focused back firmly within the process of the consciousness that is Earth, processing it all? Now become aware of where you are receiving this, the day, the time as we measure time currently.

Thank you for receiving this and this ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
