Deeply within Engaging the Pure Element

Hello – Lani speaking with you again. A time again to reconnect into that greater communication matrix that exists around the world that our technology has created to enable us to communicate and link in. Remember, behind the technology there is an inspirational network and I am referring to the matrix of consciousness.

So, my question would be – could you still connect in with this quasmic field of consciousness without the use of technology?

This is probably something that you do all the time when you want to connect with the prime source of energy and information.

I am just inspiring you to continue what you are doing, but today you could come with me and others to be fully present – fully consciously present – in the continuation of this series of delivering energy and information to us and through us.

We stand together with the collective consciousness Beings. I feel we are part of a grand circle of Beings consciously present.

This is how we are beginning this session already.

“As the collective consciousness as we are referred to because it helps you understand we are more than just one entity speaking, in this way you are fully present and are actively involved in the presentation of energy systems in you and through you.

You would understand that your life system, your civilization system, is the presentation of a number of experiences and other systems. Remember, your focus should be on the intention behind every subsystem that has been created. Your intention should be to connect with the collective consciousness of the pure energy field – the intention of enlivening the inhabitants on this planet and enlivening the planet consciousness itself.

As we are saying this about enlivening the individuals, remember that you are the individual consciousness having come in to represent an individual consciousness to participate in the overall expanding field and increasing vitality field throughout you, throughout the system that you know as the Beings present on planet Earth currently.

You may have noticed there has been a shift in people's understanding over the last, would you say, several months or more recently than that? They have come to realize that there is more enlightened situations, intuition, and information coming in and there are specific channels that enable it to come in so that you receive it. You would understand there are other channels of media sources that are not permitted to open and allow the full extent of the communication system to come in.

We are taking about tuning in yourself to find the establishment of your connection into the pure element of creative source energy. In this gathering that you are participating in, you are presenting yourself in to be a receiver of the energy systems that we are communicating and we are presenting you within and you receive it then you are communicating that around you in the best ways possible. In your living situation and as you experience situations and you realise that the energy flows through experiences, it is the energy that you bring in from the pure source energy frequency we refer to. You are bringing it in to flow through you into the experiences you are having in the time space reality that you are living your life as currently.

You are living your life currently in different ways individually. Your base level of existence is the pure consciousness field and as you receive this in this gathering you become more aware of that.

You are out beyond the civilization that had been established and other civilizations that had been established, perhaps built on previous ones – but you are accessing with your intention the purest element of creation and you are bringing this in and you are creating the new civilization.

The new species that we have spoken about previously – simply because the energy frequency – the pattern you are absorbing – is a different level of intelligence to what you have referred to as your life experience previously. You have opened yourself to receive this exponential energy system from the consciousness matrix that is beyond Earth space time reality.

There are other space time realities that coexist with your individual space time reality, but we are referring you to the original source energy pattern for you. It is as if you need to be reminded of this and to reconnect every time you are drawn out to perhaps participating in other situations around you, but you must be fully consciously present.

Now, as a fully conscious presence you are actively engaging the pure element of creation continuously. This is what is called the frequency of the new dimensional existence. It is not that it is new. It is just appears to be new to your previous outdated field of thought pattern and existence.

You are opening yourself to enter the dimensional frequency that we can say is the new species. You are becoming this. You are this individually. Deep within your true energy centre you are this and so this of course motivates and energizes everything to do with your physicality existence – the body, the mind, the emotions. So, forget about all of the old insignificant patterns that perhaps had shaped your life - but they led you to this point of entering this presentation and understanding yourself much more fully and deeply,

This is why you were presenting yourself into this field, to receive this in this way as a continuation for you and thus you have accepted it.”

I am Lani speaking again and the sense of that beautiful energy frequency will remain with you and me and so we continue ourselves as the individual living in the time reality experience and we are changing that.

We are imbuing our life in the time reality experience with the frequency pattern received and the understanding that it is.

You have given yourself this gift today as you have experienced this session through Omega Communications.

Thank you. It is wonderful to be presenting this into our greater consciousness field existing in all time.
